UNITE TO CUT DOWN COAL PRICE

LIBERAL HOPES GAIN LITTLE IN BERLIN CHANGE

One New Minister Is Opposed to Present War Method.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 6.—The shakeup in the German ministry, with the resignation of five ministers of state and four secretaries of state, does not mean the parliamentarization of the empire, but it may be expected to be followed by some changes in the method of conducting the war.

This seems to be the consensus in Germany, as expressed by the comment of the German papers which have been received here dealing with the situation.

WHAT WILL KUEHLMANN DO?

Most interest in the events of the last few days in Berlin has centered around the appointment of Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, in succession to Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, as foreign secretary, since Dr. Kuehlmann, in many ways, represents an attitude greatly at variance with the previous war policies of the empire. Some circles assert Dr. Kuehlmann is a bitter opponent of "junkerism," the rule of the military clique.

FOE OF RUTHLESS WAR.

In a character sketch of Dr. von Kuehlmann the Nieuwe Courant of The Hague says that Dr. von Kuehlmann has always been a vigorous opponent of ruthless submarine warfare.

He is also, says the newspaper, a disciple of the policy of doing everything possible to avoid the further alienation of Great Britain, believing that after-the-war friendship between Great Britain and Germany is necessary to the latter.

Dr. von Kuehlmann, the Nieuwe Courant adds, is an anti-annexationist, and the newspaper expresses the opinion that in the foreign secretaryship he will do his utmost to bring about an understanding with England at the earliest possible time.

INTERNAL POLICIES TO STAND.

The Berlin papers are not expecting a great change in internal policies, at least, and most of the comment is that no great advance has been made in the direction of parliamentarism.

The Tageblatt regards the changes as unimportant for the development of the empire. The Vossiche Zeitung says the new government is not likely to give the impression of being of the parliamentary order.

Volkszeitung comments that the most favorable thing that can be said about the development is that there has been an infusion of fresh blood into the bureaucracy.

LIBERALS NOT HOPEFUL.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 6.—The Liberal press of Germany is outspoken in its disappointment over the selections Chancellor Michaelis has made of his colleagues in the new imperial and Prussian ministries, which are held to show that the effect is one of names only, and not of the system. All the papers of this class agree in the view that there is not a trace of parliamentarism in the new order of things.

Vorwaerts, the Socialist organ, speaks of the new administration as one of "enlightened bureaucracy." The Tageblatt characterizes the new ministers as in the main successful administrative officials. The nomination of two members of parliament cannot, it says, be regarded as even a step toward parliamentarism, because in the first place neither of the two is particularly liberal in his views or a strong believer in reforms in the direction of liberalism, and in the second place both must under the present constitution resign their seats.

Dr. von Kuehlmann alone of the new officials is given favorable treatment by the Liberal organs. The Conservative and Pan-German newspapers are correspondingly aggrieved over his appointment.

CHANGES IN MINISTRY.

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—[Via London.]—Official announcement was made today that five ministers of state, including Foreign Secretary Zimmermann, and four secretaries of state, including Finance Minister Lentze and Interior Minister von Loebell, had resigned their portfolios.

Dr. Richard von Kuehlmann, the German ambassador to Turkey, has been

Of the first 345 men called for examination for the draft in the First district [downtown area] there are 139 quitters. Fifty-eight of these deliberately have given false addresses, as the examination summons addressed to them have been returned to the board with the significant words "not found" marked upon them. Eighty-one, although notified, have failed to respond to their examination notices.

These facts, which are contained in a report of the exemption board of the First district, give strength to the report that a deliberate scheme to evade the draft law has been unearthed in that district, a conspiracy which is believed to extend to other districts as well. The report will be submitted to the federal authorities for investigation today.

Many Are Exempted.

The report shows that of the first 345 notified only 155 have been examined, and of these ninety-two have been accepted and have filed no exemption claim. Twenty-three others also have been accepted but have claimed exemption, and forty have been disqualified for various physical defects. Those not yet physically examined total 190, of wnich forty-four are aliens and seven are in military service.

Government officials say that punishment for deliberate dodging of the draft will be drastic. Maj. B. M. Chiperfield, representing Provost General Crowder as adviser to the Chicago districts, says that in the cases where men have failed to answer the notices sent out by the exemption boards the police and government investigators will be ordered to arrest the violators.

Eleven Men Are Held.

Of the scores of alleged slackers taken into custody yesterday by the police and special agents of the department of justice, thirteen were formally arraigned before United States Commissioners Lewis F. Mason and Mark A. Foote. Eleven of them were held in bonds of $1,000 to the next federal grand jury.

Those arraigned before Commissioner Foote and held to the grand jury were Joseph Buno, Michael Kissane, Anthony Branich, Ivan Kopljanac, John F. Patch, and George Petanćich. Albert G. Le Blanc was released on his own recognizance to appear for examination at a later date.

Branich declared that the reason he did not register was because he has a brother fighting in the Austrian army and he feared that if he were drafted he would have to fight against him. The others pleaded ignorance of the draft law.

Rejected as Recruit.

Those arraigned before Commissioner Mason were: Alexander Karpawicz, Jacob Propadalo, Ramona Mendez, Paul Rosmowitz, Joseph Galloway, and Arthur Leis.

Leis pleaded ignorance of the draft law. He said that he was working in Detroit on registration day and later went to Toledo. From there he came to Chicago and learned of the draft when it was too late. He gave himself up on the advice of his father, John Leis, and said that he wanted to enlist.

Commissioner Mason called up Maj. Franklin R. Kenney and told him the situation. Maj. Kenney said that all recruiting offices had been ordered not to accept any enlistments from men of draft age. The commissioner then called up Col. John J. Garrity of the Second Illinois infantry and got the same reply.

HIS "ALIMONY CLOTHES" SOFTEN JUDGE'S HEART

What are alimony clothes? Maybe the following will explain:

Paul J. Vernon, a construction engineer, yesterday met a deputy sheriff, who made him acquainted with a court summons. Mrs. Katherine Vernon, it seemed, having filed suit for a divorce, wanted temporary alimony and Judge Torrison wanted to talk the matter over in court with Vernon.

Mrs. Vernon, who lives at 1840 Barry avenue, and her three children, Ella, Mary, and Paul J., were in the courtroom.

"Look at my clothes," said Vernon to the judge. "They are dirty and I'm sick. Honest, judge."

The judge believed him and granted no alimony to Mrs. Vernon. Vernon, feeling considerably elated, sauntered out into the hall. Immediately parasols, handbags, fists, and cutting words were hurled in his direction by Mrs. Vernon and her children. It took two bailiffs some time to stop the young riot.

Attorney Benjamin E. Burr, counsel for Vernon, said afterward: "It's a good thing Vernon had on his alimony clothes. That sure was some reception."

Now the big mystery is "What are alimony clothes?"

8 STATES BACK DRASTIC ACTION SET FOR TODAY

Defense Council May Ask Seizure of Mines.

Positive action, the details of which are withheld, to bring down the prices of Illinois coal from $2.75 and $3.50 a ton at the mines will be taken today by the State Council of Defense, according to statements of its members. Support of its program by the governors and councils of defense of the surrounding states has been enlisted by Gov. Lowden and Chairman Samuel Insull, and the co-operation of the remainder of the states is being sought.

The states that are understood to have signified a willingness to act in conjunction with Illinois are Missouri, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, and Kentucky.

Neither the members of the council nor the coal men would discuss matters yesterday. The mine operators have retained lawyers to combat price slashing efforts, and any action by the council meeting today may be followed by a series of petitions in court attacking both the legality of the action and of the law creating the council.

FULL COUNCIL TO ATTEND.

The session will be held at 11 o'clock, and will be attended by the full membership of the council. Gov. Lowden will not be present, but will be advised by telephone of what is done.

Mr. Insull refused to confirm reports yesterday that the council will take steps to have the state take possession of all the mines in southern Illinois, or at least those bound up in alleged high price compacts put through this year with the aid and assistance of a coal operators' association.

A conference of all governors and councils of defense of the midwest states will be held in Chicago within the next few days in connection with the program of the Illinois council. It is stated that the plan of action devised by the council in today's meeting will be placed before them for ratification. A general understanding relative to this program has already been reached by the officials of all of the central states.

FEDERAL AID ASKED.

A petition for intervention into the coal situation will be placed before the federal trade commisson today by Clifford Thorne of the utilities bureau. This is an organization with members in practically all states, and designed to represent the interests of the public in hearings before government tribunals.

The federal commission will be asked to knock the props from the scale of prices fixed by the Peabody committee.

The petition to the commission says:

"Up to the present time the coal operators have forced ex parte hearings behind closed doors before practically all tribunals, both state and federal. This is an anomaly in American practice. Any proceedings before any tribunal attempting to regulate prices, whether on public necessities, like gas, water, or transportation service, has usually been out in the open, where all parties can be heard, with the right of cross examination reserved to advance interests.

"The prices on coal today are substantially those established by the Peabody committee. This schedule of prices was heralded throughout the United States as a remarkable example of generosity and noble patriotism on behalf of the coal operators. It is our claim that these prices are unjust and excessive. Mr. Peabody and his associates who fixed these prices have posed as great public benefactors and noble, self-sacrificing patriots."

HIGHER THAN YEAR AGO.

It is shown that the Peabody prices for Franklin county are from $1.50 to $1.85 a ton higher than the same prices one year ago. It is shown further that the Peabody scale actually raised the price of Williamson county coal.

In discussing the cost of producing coal now, the petition says:

"Variations of over 100 per cent in cost estimates by experts under oath on the witness stand are common. Variation aggregating more than 300 per cent can be cited in the official records of courts and commissions."

WIFE TROUNCES OTHER WOMAN AS CROWD LOOKS ON

Auto on Boulevard Is Center of a Lively Triangle Row.

With some fistic activity a small and comely wife knocked out one of those everlasting triangles last night, to the edification of a Michigan boulevard audience. And if the brunette hypotenuse of this triangle is still going at the speed she started she ought to be in New Orleans by now.

Mrs. Wife—the police withhold the name—leaped on the running board of an automobile—Locomobile, dealers' license No. 191—in Madison street, near Michigan.

Heavy Artillery Action.

"You're a homewrecker, are you? (Swat on the jaw.) You'll call up my husband and make dates, will you? (Bing!) You're a vampire, eh?" (Whack!) Mrs. Wife thus addressed herself to Mrs. Brunette.

Mrs. Wife continued to swing until Mrs. Brunette was a mess indeed. Finally, unable to stand punishment further, the suspected homewrecker departed through the crowd down the avenue. Mr. Husband was left in a most unstrategic position. Mrs. Wife turned to him.

Husband Tries to Hide.

"You (whack!) will take out other women (crack!) in your nice (bang!) new automobile (slap!) will you? You don't care for our two beautiful (crack!) children?" (whack! whack!)

The husband thought he'd rather have the crowd saying: "There he goes!" than, "Doesn't he look natural?" so he, too, hopped over the side and tried to hide in the crowd. But the crowd was of one mind.

"Crack him a couple for the kids, lady," yelled a single standard enthusiast. And the lady laid on McDuff. Mr. Husband took new hope. He jumped back in the car, muttering something about "taking her to the station." Mrs. Wife followed.

Storm Subsides at Station.

In a few moments Locomobile No. 191 drew up in front of Central station and Mr. Husband and Mrs. Wife hurried inside. There, in the presence of Sergt. Patrick Brady, a new séance began. But the presence of many reporters caused Sergt. Brady to take the dispute into more quiet quarters. Presently things calmed down.

"I had an inkling of this," said the woman. "Some one telephoned and I suspected a married woman who is a neighbor. When I saw her leave her house I followed. I was in such a hurry I hadn't time to get a hat or coat. Downtown I saw him drive up and meet her. She did well, huh! But one thing is certain—tomorrow I am going to tell her husband. This is a game that works both ways."

Thus the triangle, all out of shape, went home.

KINGDON GOULD, PHYSICALLY FIT, WOULD SHUN WAR

Tom's River, N. J., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Kingdon Gould, eldest son of George J. Gould, appeared before an exemption board here today for physical examination for service in the national draft army and passed as physically fit.

He immediately asked for an exemption blank, which was given him.

Mr. Gould filled out the blank claiming exemption under class H, reading, "a person having dependents upon his labor for support" and under subclass I, "a married man with wife or children dependent upon him for support."

Two Girls Near Death in Lake Are Rescued

Two little girls narrowly escaped death by drowning at the Oak street beach yesterday. Rose Bisfore, 12 years old, 1033 West Eleventh street, and Tillie Staedle, 11 years old, 1348 West Taylor street, were playing 200 feet from shore when a wave washed them beyond their depth. Park Policeman Charles Kiefer and Life Guard Joseph Harrop went to their rescue and got them to shore unconscious. They worked over them for half an hour and revived them. The girls were sent home in an ambulance.

NEW ZEALAND HIT BY WORST QUAKE IN SIXTY YEARS

LONDON, Aug. 6.—A violent earthquake, which caused great damage, has occurred in the southern portion of North island, New Zealand, according to a Reuter dispatch from Wellington. The Wairarapa district, northwest of Wellington, suffered most severely.

Pioneer residents of North island, the dispatch adds, describe the quake as the worst since the terrible upheaval sixty years ago.

North island is the northernmost of the New Zealand group. Two active volcanic peaks on the island are Mounts Ruapehu and Tongariro.

CURFEW SHALL NOT RING TONIGHT IN LAKE FOREST

Dignity, intelligence, and forbearance of Lake Forest girls received official support and commendation last night when the city council of that north shore suburb declined to have any truck with a curfew ordinance.

The suggestion that a curfew measure be adopted was offered by James G. Welch, state's attorney of Lake county, who has been vigorous in prosecution of cases of delinquency of girls. In a few of these Welch has declared himself satisfied that recruits of the Great Lakes Naval Training station are at fault.

Last night Mr. Welch proposed that an ordinance should be adopted in Lake Forest making it punishable for young girls of an age to be fixed by the measure to be out from their homes at a late hour unless suitably accompanied.

Mayor Keene H. Addington of Lake Forest immediately frowned on the proposition.

"I am not of the opinion that Lake Forest needs such a restriction," he said. "It has not been brought to my attention that our young women are heedless or in need of espionage. On the contrary they are laudably self-possessed and prudent."

There was no further argument. A vote was taken and Mr. Welch went back to Waukegan.

CONSTABLE SETS OUT TO BRING IN PRESIDENT OF 'Q'

Aurora, Ill., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Cortez Dutton, a vigorous and gesturing justice of the peace, today ordered his faithful constable, Wilmer Orr, to go out and get Hale Holden and fetch him into court next Saturday as a witness in a $68 law suit against the Burlington railroad.

"The president of the 'Q.', you mean?" Wilmer asked conversationally.

"The same," said the justice.

"All right, yer honor," Wilmer said, "Saturday."

Just like that, he said. And in Aurora most everybody figures Wilmer will get his man, for he has never been known to fail to get the goods he has been sent after, whether it was a sewing machine, an automobile, or something that went upon legs.

SENATE GETS TWO BILLIONS REVENUE BILL

Heavy Increase in Income Taxes Is Provided.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—The war revenue bill, as finally revised by the senate committee, was reported to the senate today by Chairman Simmons. It will raise, according to the estimates, $2,006,970,000. As the bill passed the house it is estimated it will raise $1,867,000,000.

This is the second time that the bill has been reported to the senate, it having been withdrawn by Chairman Simmons when the administration announced that several billion dollars more would be required during the present fiscal year.

EXEMPTIONS ARE LOWERED.

The report is concurred in by Republican members of the committee as well as Democrats, and every effort will be made to put the bill through the senate at the earliest possible date. Senator La Follette, a member of the committee, gave notice that a minority report would be filed. It is expected that Senators Gore and Thomas, Democrats, would join the minority report.

The reports presented today make the following changes in exemptions under the individual income tax, as compared with those in the present law:

	Present law.	New committee bill.
Heads of families......	$4,000	$2,000
Other persons..........	3,000	1,000

AVOIDS RETROACTIVE TAX.

The revised senate bill strikes out the retroactive tax upon last year's incomes, but, principally by increasing surtaxes on wealthy persons and by doubling the normal tax on corporations, proposes to raise $777,000,000 in addition to the $330,000,000 now obtained from incomes.

It proposes a levy of $562,000,000 on war profits and extends the tax to individuals in trade or business as well as corporations.

The house tax yield on distilled spirits of $110,000,000 is raised to $135,000,000; that on beer from $37,500,000 to $46,000,000, and that on wines from $6,000,000 to $21,000,000. A prohibitive tax on further manufacture or importation of distilled beverages also is provided.

INCREASE MAIL RATES.

The original senate committee provision for an increase of one-quarter of 1 cent a pound in publishers' mailing rates and a 5 per cent tax upon their net incomes over $4,000 in lieu of the house plan for increasing postal rates by a zone system was retained. The house provisions reimposing Spanish war stamp taxes were substantially retained.

The total estimated increase in federal revenues of $2,006,970,000 proposed under the amended bill was said today by Chairman Simmons and treasury experts to be conservative. Many of those in charge of the revision believe the bill will in actual operation yield many millions more.

DEFENDS WAR PROFITS TAX.

Defending the new plan of taxing war profits, the report said:

"The house bill would impose a tax of 16 per cent on excess profits. Great Britain's war profits are now taxed 80 per cent; Canada's were increased from 25 to 75 per cent, and the New Zealand rate is 45 per cent. The committee pro poses instead of an excess profits tax a war profits tax.

"The change of basis seems desirable not only because it is equitable but because its successful collection will be greatly facilitated. The committee reached the conclusion that a graduated tax beginning with 12 per cent and reaching 50 per cent at its highest would be far more equitable than a flat tax of 16 per cent."

In defending the proposed tax of 10 per cent on undivided corporate incomes, the report said:

Where Money Comes From.

The principal sources of the revenue to be raised by the bill as reported to the senate and the estimated amounts from these sources is as follows:

HOUSTON CAMP TO BE SHORT ONE ARMY DIVISION

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Illinois will send to the Houston camp two brigades and one regiment of infantry, two regiments short of infantry divisional strength; a brigade of field artillery, a regiment of engineers, a signal corps company, and a sanitary train. The present intention of the war department is to add no troops to this number by drawing from excess troops of other states, but to leave the Houston camp short of a division.

The senior brigadier general of the Illinois guard will be the commanding officer unless there is a change in plans.

Secretary Baker has before him recommendations of governors of states, approved by Gen. Mann, chief of the militia bureau, for appointment of major generals for all the national guard divisions and brigadier generals for all the guard brigades.

Fiancee of Commander Killed by U-Boat Shell

New York, Aug. 6.—Hans von Teubinger commanded the U-boat that killed his own fiancée, Minna Larsen, according to Lars Larsen, Swedish skipper, today.

Larsen said the girl—his daughter—and Von Teubinger were engaged in Stockholm before the war.

After a submarine shell had killed Minna aboard Larsen's schooner, the Baldar, he declared, he recognized his prospective son-in-law on the U-boat deck directing the firing.

Regular Army Needs Only 4,548 Men to Fill Ranks

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Less than 5,000 men are needed to complete the quota of all the states for the regular army. Recruits accepted Saturday and Sunday numbered 1,400. The total since April 1 is 179,350, leaving 4,548 to be enlisted.

KERENSKY WINS ALL FACTIONS; FORMS CABINET

Men Who Had Opposed Agree to Join the Government.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 6.—The latest cabinet crisis apparently has ended in a victory for M. Kerensky, the premier and minister of war. The constitutional democrats, who caused the greatest stumbling block in the recent crisis, have agreed to participate, and the list of members who will form the new ministry has been agreed on.

In regard to several portfolios, however, the choice is not definite, as the candidates are absent from Petrograd.

Names of New Ministers.

Minister of foreign affairs—M. I. Terestchenko.

Minister of labor—M. Skobeleff.

Minister of trade and industry — M. Prokopovitch.

Minister of justice—M. Yefremoff.

Minister of communications—M. Takhtamisheff.

Minister of posts and telegraphs — M. Nikitine [social democrat].

Minister of Agriculture—M. Tchernoff [socialist].

Assistant minister of war—M. Savinkoff.

Foreign Minister Terestchenko informs the Associated Press that M. Tchernoff, who again becomes minister of agriculture, has been fully rehabilitated, his accusers having withdrawn charges that he had relations with Germany.

General Ordered Shot.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—Gen. Maeovisky, commander of the guards corps which headed the Russian retreat on the southwest front, has been ordered shot, according to a disptach to the Post from Petrograd.

This sentence came after a court martial which was ordered by Gen. Korniloff, commander in chief, for noncompliance with his order to shoot deserters.

TO ARREST SOCIALISTS.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 6.—The ministry of justice has ordered the arrest of Leon Trotzky and M. Dunacharsky for the part they played in the uprising here last month. The men are international Socialists and leaders in the council of workmen's and soldiers' delegates.

Leon Trotzky lived in the United States at the outbreak of the revolution, and when its success was known he left for Russia. After some difficulty with the British government he reached Petrograd. With Nikolai Lenine he led the Maximalists in the disorders in Petrograd in July.

Trotzky came to the United States when he was expelled from Europe for preaching peace.

BARONESS ILL; IRE AROUSED IN SHAVER TRIAL

Menominee, Mich., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—The $70,000 action brought against the Baroness Mae Van Pallandt Van Erde by Miss Frank Gray Shaver for the recovery of money said to have been received before the alleged breach in their friendship took on new and sensational aspects today when under cross examination the baroness become confused over alleged incidents in her life, used strong language on the stand, which drew a reprimand from Judge Flannigan, and became too ill to continue her testimony.

Her attorneys immediately asked for an adjournment and later for a settlement.

It is understood the court will order the testimony sealed. Attorneys were seeking to prove her alleged residence in a certain house in Chicago in 1888 when she became confused over dates.

TEACH SAMMIES TO FACE GASES

AMERICAN FIELD HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Aug. 6.—Poison gas is the first peril of a modern battle which Pershing's troops will face on the road toward the trenches. Before he reaches the firing line every officer and enlisted man will know the suffocating, stupefying sensation produced by that deadly chemical preparation with which the Germans two years ago horrified humanity.

He will be obliged to face the dread waves in a cavernlike inclosure where their effect is even more terrible than out in the open. Little danger will attend the encounter, for not only will the American be equipped with a perfectly good mask but a large array of surgeons will be within an arm's length of him when he enters the gaseous area.

A sinister looking little structure built to resemble those subterranean bombproofs in which the gas finds most of its victims will be the scene of the test. The Sammy will march in and stay long enough to get rid of their nervousness and learn to inhale the protective vapors contained in the mask. The masks already have been served out to the greater part of the troops, and instructions in donning them have been drilled into the men by medical officers.

No Ice Delivered Thursday.

No ice will be delivered in Chicago Thursday, when members of the Chicago Ice Wagon Drivers' and helpers' union will attend the annual picnic of the organization in Brand's park, Elston and Belmont avenues. Members of the union are employés of more than thirty companies supplying ice to Chicago.

All Allies Unite Efforts to Speed Airship Building

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—The United States, in closest coöperation with the British, French, and Italian governments, will coördinate all industries entering into the great aviation program upon which the nation embarked with the passage by congress of the $640,000,000 aviation bill.

The aircraft production board, acting for the government, will arrange for the purchase of all airplane spruce and other wood entering into construction and distribute it to Great Britain, France, Italy, and the United States in proportion to the needs of each country.

Ultimately all steel will be manufactured in this country and distributed in the same way, releasing British, French, and Italian steel for other war purposes.

Use New Style Motors.

With the perfection of the new standard motor, which is now undergoing all manner of tests at the bureau of standards in this city, the new engine will be used to a great extent by the allies as well as by the United States.

The allies will not abandon the high power airplane motors with which they have literally put out the eyes of the enemy and which have made it possible for them to gain the upper hand on the front in France and Flanders.

The principal thing now is to standardize every part that enters into the motor and every other part of the airplane, in order that plants anywhere can build the complete motors, complete machines, or parts on identical lines.

Italy has made great progress in developing heavy motors and Italian experts now are working on engines designed to develop upwards of 2,000 horse power and capable of carrying great weight. These motors are several times as powerful as those used in the fast British and French fighting and scout machines that have proved so successful on the western front.

Canadian Camp in Texas.

New York, Aug. 6.—Official announcement was made by the British recruiting mission tonight that Lieut. H. B. Denton, in charge of recruiting for the royal flying corps, will go to Texas soon to lay out an aviation camp for the Canadians.

"This camp in Texas," the statement said, "will mean still closer coöperation between the aviation sections of the American and British forces and a further standardization of method of actual work."

Quick Work at Rantoul.

Rantoul, Ill., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—The Chanute aviation field, which was begun the last week in May, will be turned over to the government next Monday, it was announced at the field today.

A number of prominent government officials, including Howard Coffin, the chairman of the aircraft production board, are expected to arrive at Rantoul Saturday for an inspection of the field. This is the field the building of which Mr. Coffin stated had broken all past records. The field complete will cost a cool million and will accommodate from 850 to 1,000 fliers.

Ten more biplanes, all of the J-N-4 type, were shipped from the Curtiss factory on Saturday and are expected at Chanute daily. Lieut. Lane, son of the secretary of the interior, has arrived at the field and has taken up his duties.

GOOD NEWS FOR FOOT SUFFERERS

If you have tired, swollen, aching, burning, sweaty feet, painful stinging corns or calluses, here is good news for you.

Recently in the treatment of foot troubles by patients using Ice-Mint, these distinctive features were noticeable. Tired, aching, burning and swollen feet invariably became cool, easy and comfortable after the first application, while in the treatment of corns and calluses, it was noticed that after a few nights' application, the corns or callus had a tendency to loosen and in a short time could easily be lifted out with the fingers—root and all—leaving the surrounding skin in normal, healthy condition.

When you stop to consider that the simple, pleasant process of rubbing a little Ice-Mint on the foot at night will shortly rid one of every painful corn or callus and will keep the feet cool, comfortable and rested on the hottest days, it is easy to understand why it is thought that foot troubles will soon be a thing of the past.

Ice-Mint is an entirely new departure from the disagreeable old time foot remedies, inasmuch as it is absolutely harmless and comes in the form of a snow white creamy preparation, which is delightful and easy to apply. It costs little and can be obtained here from any of our local druggists.—Advertisement.

AMERICA TOLD BIG CREDIT TO ALLIES IS DUTY

PARIS, Aug. 6.—The Journal Des Debats, in a review of finance, says that it is America's imperative duty to recognize obligations toward France which it cannot escape, and that it must open credits to the allies as large as may be required, without which they cannot continue the war. The article points out that the status of the United States is different now that it is in the war, and says that it must not expect the same securities as when its standing was on a private basis.

"While America was still neutral," the review adds, "it could limit its credit and demand that we pay in gold a large portion of our purchases, but now that it has entered the war it would be folly on their part to wish to continue to act this way.

"But it is important that Americans take account as soon as possible of obligations which they cannot escape.

"This is what must be understood in America, and what it does not seem to have understood yet, to judge by the shipment of gold which England has had to send to America."

AVIATOR LANDIS MEETS DANIELS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Private Reed G. Landis, son of Judge Kenesaw M. Landis of Chicago, will carry with him the best wishes, personally expressed, of at least three members of President Wilson's cabinet when he sails soon for France to complete his training as a member of the American aerial corps.

Private Landis saw Secretary of the Navy Daniels today. The secretary was chatting with Judge Landis and his son when the newspaper men came in for their morning conference and Private Landis heard an animated discussion of the navy's plans to fight the U boats which he soon will brave in crossing the Atlantic.

Young Landis is one of the men scheduled for a commission as a first lieutenant in the aviation corps. He recently completed his course in the ground school at the University of Illinois.

SPEECHES STILL RAKE FOOD BILL IN SENATE MILL

But Measure Drafted by Conferees May Pass Tomorrow.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Resumption of the senate debate today on the conference report of the administration food control bill was marked by bitter exchanges between those advocating and those opposing the legislation. After a day's discussion of the bill as finally drafted by the conferees, administration leaders and some of the chief opponents said it would be disposed of on Wednesday.

Senator Chamberlain, the administration's manager, and Senator Gore, who has been prominent in the opposition, clashed sharply during the debate after Senator Reed had made another speech of more than three hours attacking the measure and Herbert C. Hoover.

When Senator Gore charged that the senate conferees had yielded the senate's judgment to that of the president, Senator Chamberlain, in a vehement speech, declared that the Oklahoma senator had consistently obstructed the food bill and also other administration measures.

Rather Crawl and Aid Wilson.

"I had rather be charged with following in the footsteps of the distinguished president of the United States in the conduct of this war," the Oregon senator said, "crawling, if you please, on my knees and licking the dust from his feet, as has been suggested here, than to stand in opposition to him and to be consorting with and treating with the enemies of the president."

Senator Gore denied obstructing the bill or, as Senator Chamberlain had suggested, the army draft law.

Senator Hollis, one of those active in framing the leaders' compromise measure which passed the senate, announced that he would vote against the conference report because it required a single vote on the whole, and because the conferees eliminated his amendment proposing to exempt organized labor from the bill's operations. The anti-hoarding section, he said, would subject labor union heads who might call strikes on railroads transporting or in factories producing necessaries to two years' imprisonment and $10,000 fines.

Labor Must Be Recognized.

"If a movement similar to that in Russia is found in the United States," the New Hampshire senator said, "it will be on the heads of the senators. The conduct of the war depends on the frame of mind of the laboring men of the country. Our one hope in Germany is that workingmen there will no longer obey constituted authority. This bill's provisions are more stringent that the Sherman law.

Recession of the senate conferees on the provision for a congressional committee to supervise war expenditures, stricken out largely because of the president's strong opposition, was denounced by Senator Hardwick and defended by Senators Williams and Wolcott.

Senator Williams declared that there is either more intended than is apparent in the language of the proposal to create the joint committee on war expenditures, or it is unnecessary.

Tells What He Would Do.

"If it has any ulterior purpose, what is it?" he demanded. "It may be to display suspicion and create lack of trust in the executive, whose duty it is to carry on the war."

The Mississippi senator declared that were he the president and such a committee was authorized by congress, he would veto the measure and tell them that he was responsible to the people who elected him and that he regarded such an act as lack of confidence.

Senator Wolcott declared that the congressional committee during the civil war had abused its power and attempted to dictate the military and naval campaigns.

Most of today's debate was occupied by Democratic senators opposing approval of the conference report. The Republicans were said by their leaders to be almost a unit for immediate and favorable action.

U. S. PROPERTY IS FOUND IN A BLIND PIG RAID

Fort Sheridan, Ill., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Two hundred pounds of empty cartridge shells, several United States army shirts, and several bottles of liquor were taken by department of justice agents today in a raid on the home of Mrs. Olampia Marsicchi at Highland Park, following the receipt of complaints that the woman operated a blind pig for soldiers. Chief of Police William L. Meyers, who aided the government officials in making the raid, gave the woman five days in which to leave town. The shirts bore identification marks from Jefferson Barracks, Mo. The shells are believed to have been exchanged for liquor.

GIRL LOCKED IN ROOM IN LOOP; ACCUSES SUITOR

Charles Elick and Esther Townes, both of Bay City, Mich., were taken from the St. Nicholas hotel, 606 South Fifth avenue, yesterday, after the proprietor of the hotel had reported to the police that the girl had been kept locked in her room by Elick since their arrival last Thursday. The girl declared she had been kidnaped by Elick, who forced her to board a train in Detroit, where her mother lives. Elick said the girl proposed that they elope and be married. The case was turned over to the federal authorities.

GLASSES ALONE NO ARMY BAR

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Wearing glasses doesn't exempt any man from the draft. The provost marshal general's office thus answered hundreds of inquiries today.

As each man wearing glasses comes up for examination each eye is examined separately. If he passes the government test he is accepted, glasses or no glasses. If he has only one good eye, and the other isn't too defective, that one good eye will get him into the army.

SHIP STRIKES DELAY SENDING ARMY TO FRANCE

Daniels Orders Craft to Be Taken to Yards of U. S. for Repairs.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—A serious turn was given to the strike situation affecting eastern shippers today when it was officially admitted that labor trouble is threatening serious delay to the transportation of American troops to France.

This situation arose through spread of the strike to shipyards with contracts for repairing the German merchant ships seized when the United States declared war on Germany. Repairs of damage done by the Germans when they abandoned the ships were under way when the labor trouble was precipitated.

Secretary Daniels today ordered some of the German ships undergoing repairs transferred from the strike locked shipyards to government navy yards for completion of the work.

May Appeal to President.

Efforts to settle the strikes were continued today by department of labor mediators. Secretary Daniels wants the facts of the situation at the shipyards before deciding whether he shall take the matter to the president and force a settlement of this trouble.

The strikes, which have been confined to yards near New York, have caused no interruption to the mammoth destroyer building program of the navy department.

Rush Work on Destroyers.

Contracts now being filled in scores of shipyards call for completion of destroyers now building within ten months from date of beginning work.

The latest destroyers being constructed are 315 feet in length, but it is probable that some even smaller may be constructed under future contracts.

SIGHTS A U-BOAT? NEW YORK PORT CLOSED; OPENED

New York, Aug. 6.—A report that a U boat had been sighted near the transatlantic lanes off this port caused the war department to close the gate in the net protecting the harbor mouth here at 1 o'clock this morning. The gate was opened again at 6 a. m.

Capital Still Investigating.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Reopening the port of New York came after an investigation by the navy which developed no facts regarded by the officials as justifying a continued closing of the port. The investigation is being continued. Unless more evidence is secured there is no reason to expect a second suspension of traffic.

WILSON AGAINST TALK OF PEACE USED AS TRICK

Will Discuss Terms Only if Offered in Good Faith.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—President Wilson is ready to deal with the question of peace when the offer is made in a definite, bona fide way, but will not be tricked into a discussion of alleged peace terms which are put forward, not with the purpose of ending the war, but to gain time or to act as propaganda.

This was the message which was brought back to the capitol today by Senator Lewis of Illinois, following a conference with the president at the White House.

Mr. Lewis also brought back the word that the president desires congress to take a rest before the opening of the winter session. He hopes the important war legislation may be wound up by Sept. 1.

Views on Peace Issue.

Mr. Lewis, of course, did not quote the president directly in regard to the peace idea.

"I do not quote the president," he said, "but do say for myself that when the true signs of peace based on the principles for which America went into this war shall appear the president will be the first to treat with them; but when they shall come disguised as peace—only to serve the further cruelties of war—and betrayal of America, Woodrow Wilson will be the last to be caught.

"The country will hear from the president on peace or war just as soon as truth or any new actual conditions call for him to take congress and the people into his confidence. He will allow the American people to lose no rights nor suffer any wrongs his diligence could prevent. I cannot say any further at this time on this subject."

Silent on Michaelis.

Senator Lewis, who addressed the senate immediately following the message of Chancellor Michaelis to the German reichstag, declared that he construed the message as a bid for peace on the terms of the allies. Asked today if he had discussed that with the president, the senator said:

"I may say that the president appeared pleased that the discussion of the significance of recent utterances abroad in regard to possible proposals and peace terms had been entered upon by members of congress and by the public generally."

Wants Early Legislation.

The statement in regard to the early recess of congress was more explicit.

"The conference was on the general legislative situation," Lewis said. "The president is anxious that everything be done possible to hasten the war legislation that congress and officials shall get some rest before the December session begins. Particularly does he desire that the officers of the senate press to early finish the food bill and the revenue bill. He wished me to convey his desires to the senators, and his hopes for quick action as will give all some rest."

Thinks All Are Tired.

It was the president's thought that congress and the executive officials who come into daily relation with the legislators had reached that point of nerve wrack when a rest until the first Monday in December would be highly relished by all, particularly the executive, although it must be admitted the president did not give expression to the latter phase of his thought.

Republicans are willing to facilitate the passage of the war revenue legislation and to rush through such legislation amendatory to the existing bond act as may be sought by the president. They are interposing only nominal opposition to the acceptance of the food bill, but they do not feel it is required of them that they accept without protest the plan of a ninety day interval between sittings of the congress.

WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD BEGINS FRAMING PLANS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—The new war industries board held its first conference with President Wilson today and took up in general the problems it must face in the purchase of war supplies for this government and the allies.

One of the points decided was that the allies of the United States should be given the same advantages in the purchase of war materials as this country enjoys.

Already this proposal has brought protests from manufacturers and producers who have agreed to sell to this government at prices lower than the [illegible].

Officials believe that ulti[illegible] system may be evolved un[illegible] which one man will do all the Am[illegible]n and allied buying, members of the war board serving as advisors.

DEALER TO MEET CONSUMER IN DRIVE ON H. C. L.

A massmeeting of dealers and consumers, at which plans will be discussed and agreed upon for reducing the high cost of living and ever increasing overhead household expenses, may be called soon by the Chicago Retailers' association, according to plans discussed at a meeting in the Hotel La Salle last night. Among the plans to be discussed will be the elimination of luxuries, conservation of necessities, and the reduction of waste.

It was stated that the overhead expenses may be reduced as follows:

Do your own marketing and carry your purchases home.

Buy from day to day and only what is needed.

Do not leave your household operations to servants.

U. S. Releases Four Men.

The four men arrested by the federal authorities Saturday in connection with the disturbances at the plant of the L. Wolff Manufacturing company, where a strike has been in progress, were released yesterday. No charges were filed against them, it is understood.

CAMERA ART

A triplet photographic frieze embodying three posed groups, entitled "Art," "Future," and "Music," the central figures in which are shown above, made by Melvin H. Sykes, whose studio is in the Stevens building, is pronounced by artists a wonderful study in photography. It won the De Guerre Memorial salon honor at the recent convention of Michigan and Ohio photographers held at Cedar Point, O.

The young women and a child who posed for the groups are not professional models. They are: Doris Greeley, 7706 Paxton avenue; Miss Dolores Gelling, 7331 Phillips avenue; Miss Lillian Casey, 5314 Drexel boulevard; Miss Conklin, 5554 South Marshfield avenue; Miss Evelyn Morton, and Miss Beulah Morley.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Citing alleged exorbitant prices paid for labor in the construction of the cantonment of Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, as an example of the necessity of a congressional committee on war expenditures, Representative Wood of Indiana today attacked the action of the house in permitting the committee provision to be eliminated from the food bill.

As a part of his remarks on the adoption of the conference report on the food bill, Representative Wood declared that the Gaylord Construction company, which built the Fort Harrison cantonment, had a contract under which it was to receive the full amount of the cost of construction plus a profit of 10 per cent.

"Immediately these contractors," Mr. Wood said, "proceeding upon the theory of the more cost the more profit, increased this account by paying not only the most exorbitant prices for material, but the amounts that they have paid and are paying for labor are outrageous and unjustifiable.

"It is now known that contracts based upon this scheme of the entire cost to the contractor plus 10 per cent profit have been let to men who were guilty of robbing the Canadian government and upon discovery were drummed out of that country and forbidden to return."

ALDERMEN OPEN BOOZE HEARING IN 'HUB' TODAY

Boston, Mass., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—The Chicago aldermanic committee which is investigating saloon conditions in New York and Boston arrived here tonight.

Only nine of the fifteen aldermen who were delegated as a "questionnaire commission" showed up at the train in Chicago. Ald. John Toman, who is chairman of the committee, called the roll just before the train left and the following failed to answer "Aye": Clark, Novak, Woodhull, Long, Krumdick, and Bowler.

Ald. Byrne, who was on the committee and also on the Ald. Franz commission, ducked the Toman party to go with the other crowd, which will journey down the St. Lawrence to Montreal. The committees will reunite in New York next Friday for the homeward trip.

Tomorrow the committee will hold two public hearings at the rooms of the Boston licensing board with Mayor James F. Curley, Police Commissioner Stephan O'Meara, and members of the board.

Shoe Dealers Arrested, Charged with Thefts

A confession of a trusted employé resulted yesterday in the arrest of two west side shoe dealers. The arrest followed thefts of the last two years believed to have amounted to between $5,000 and $10,000.

Those under arrest are Osher Temkin of 556 West Thirteenth street and David Waldman of 562 West Thirteenth street.

J. F. O'Brien, general manager of Selz, Schwab & Co., shoe manufacturers, charged that one of his salesmen, who confessed his part and whose name was withheld, had sold new stock at sample shoe prces to Temkin and Waldman.

Six U. S. Base Hospital Units Get First Taste of War Work

[Copyright: 1917: By Press Publishing Company (New York World).]

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, Aug. 6.—The six base hospital units of the United States army, on duty with the British forces, after working in the normal routine of the front for two months, had their first taste of real war conditions during the opening days of the present big Flanders push. Under direction of regular officers of the United States army medical corps, the hundreds of doctors and nurses forming the New York Presbyterian hospital, the Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, Cleveland and St. Louis units, have handled thousands of British wounded, working day and night since the offensive began.

Perfect Order Prevails.

The work of receiving the wounded by train, from railway terminals behind the front almost to the doors of the hospital huts and tents, proceeded in perfect order.

The American flag is flying over the hospitals in the British army zone, where American army surgeons are caring for more wounded today than they have since the civil war.

The officers in command of the Chicago and Boston units asked the correspondent to make clear that existing hospitals and organizations were taken over entirely in their present admirable order from the British.

Praise for U. S. Surgeons.

The British officers commanding other hospitals in the same area, who have watched the way their American colleagues handled their jobs under the first real strain that has come upon them, were emphatic in their appreciation of the fact that they had been working day and night during the late heavy firing.

In none of the three hospitals visited was there any overcrowding, and the officers in charge expressed their admiration of the British army transport arrangements which supplied them with all the work they could attend to and no more.

U-BOAT LOSSES THREE A MONTH, BERLIN CLAIMS

BERLIN, via London, Aug. 6.—It is officially declared that contrary to rumors of overwhelming losses in submarines, the monthly average is little more than three underwater boats lost during the period from Feb. 1 to August, while the monthly increase in submarines constructed is many times larger.

U. S. Destroyer to Rescue.

New York, Aug. 6.—The Greek steamship Charilaos Tricoupis, a vessel of 2,475 tons gross register, owned by the National Steam Navigation Co., Ltd. of Greece, was sunk July 13, by a German submarine, according to a cable received here today by agents of the line. Capt. Goulandris and his crew of thirty-five men were picked up and landed at a British port by an American destroyer.

Crews of Seven Vessels Landed.

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Aug. 6.—The crews of seven vessels, six of which were sunk by German submarines off the Azores islands, were brought here today by a French steamer, which took them on board at a port of call on her voyage from Europe.

The vessels sunk by submarines were: Italian bark Doris, 1,358 tons, last reported as leaving Buenos Aires May 8.

Canadian schooner Wilhelmina Gertrude.

The seventh vessel, the British schooner Conqueror, of 150 tons, was abandoned and went down June 11 off Flores after she had sprung a leak in rough weather. She encountered no submarine, according to her crew.

The sinking of all these vessels except the Ellen, Doris, and Wilhelmina Gertrude had been previously reported.

Found Dead in Bath Tub.

Peter Zeblinski, a laborer employed by the Chicago and Alton railroad, was found dead in a wash tub yesterday in a room of the railroad's roundhouse at West Thirty-eighth street and South California avenue. He is believed to have been seized with an attack of heart disease.

H. P. DAVISON REPORTS ON RED CROSS FINANCE

Henry P. Davison, as chairman of the war council of the American National Red Cross, yesterday said the Red Cross campaign for $100,000,000 resulted in subscriptions of approximately $100,000,000 and Red Cross dividends to $19,000,000.

"The total war fund subscriptions paid in Aug. 1, 1917, amounted to $30,047,116. Disbursements to that date were $2,872,598," he said.

"Total appropriations of the war council up to and including July 31 amounted to $6,175,752.

"The expenses of the Red Cross commissions to France and Russia have been met by private subscription. The purpose of the special commission to Roumania and Italy is primarily to report on needs in those countries. Many members of these commissions pay all their own expenses.

"The number of members of the Red Cross in the United States Aug. 1, 1916, was 206,077. The number on July 27, 1917, was 2,547,412.

"The full time volunteer workers at Red Cross headquarters include the head of the largest copper company in the world, a bank president, and a railroad vice president.

"All administration and overhead expenses at headquarters are much more than met by dues from members. Thus, the Red Cross war fund will continue to be available for actual relief work in Europe and this country."

Giving Vote to Troops in Camps Up to State Action

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—American citizen soldiers, whether located in cantonments of the national army, mobilization centers of the national guard, or even in France with the expeditionary forces, may vote at the fall elections if their respective states establish voting machinery at the camps.

Provost Marshal General Crowder said tonight that there was no bar to the voting of guardsmen or drafted soldiers so far as the federal government was concerned and that the only obstacle would be the absence of state legislation on the subject.

Wants Papers Franked to Sammies.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—Senator Wadsworth of New York today introduced a bill providing that newspapers, magazines, and periodicals may be sent the Sammies in France free of postage.

THOMAS D. JONES IS GIVEN A JOB AS WAR COUNCILLOR

Chicago Man Succeeds Hurley on Board of Exports.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Thomas D. Jones of Chicago, President Wilson's classmate at Princeton, whose appointment as a member of the federal reserve board in 1914 aroused such a storm of protest in the senate that he asked the president to withdraw his name, received a government appointment today that the senate cannot assail.

Wilson Approves Selection.

Secretary Redfield, with the approval of the president, appointed Mr. Jones, who is president of the Mineral Point Zinc company and a director of the International Harvester company, as the representative of the department of commerce on the administrative board of the exports control division.

Mr. Jones succeeds Edward N. Hurley, also of Chicago, newly appointed chairman of the United States shipping board.

No Chance to Fight Him.

The appointment is not subject to senate confirmation and therefore the 1914 fight against Mr. Jones waged by a group of senators, led by Reed of Missouri, cannot be renewed.

When Mr. Jones was named by the president for membership on the federal reserve board, there was an immediate protest made by Senator Reed and others, who charged that he was affiliated with the zinc trust and the harvester trust.

FOUR ARRESTED FOR THEFTS OF $2,000 OF HAM

Three employés of Arnold Bros., packers, 660 West Randolph street, and one of the firm's customers were arrested yesterday by the police of the Desplaines street station on warrants sworn out by George E. Lettie, manager of the concern, alleging the theft and sale of hams and bacon valued at $2,000. Those arrested are:

John Kastelnay, 4114 North Kimball avenue, order clerk; Owen Gribben, 2117 Burling street, day barnman; Otto Macko, Melrose Park, night barnman; Joseph Niewierawski, 1258 North Ashland avenue, wholesale meat commission business.

According to the police, the firm suspected Kastelnay. He was watched, and when seen packing hams and bacon in barrels which were taken to the packers' barn the police watched the latter place. Niewierawski drove up with an automobile truck and started away with the stolen meat, they say. The prisoners confessed that the meat would be sold by the barnmen to the commission man, and the three employés of Arnold Bros. divided the proceeds, the police say.

High School Is Planned by Dutch Reform Churches

There was filed for record yesterday a deed from George Ottenhoff to the Chicago Christian High School association of the vacant ground, 125x124 feet, at the northwest corner of May and Seventy-first streets, a nominal consideration being given. It is said the association is backed by all the Christian Reform and Dutch Reform churches in Chicago, and that it is proposed to improve the site with a large high school building.

LABOR APPEALS TO PRESIDENT IN BISBEE CASE

Arizona Speaker Asserts Deportations Beckon Toward Revolt.

Clifton, Ariz., Aug. 6.—A telegram to President Wilson asking what action he intended taking with reference to the deportation on July 12 of 1,150 alleged members of the Industrial Workers of the World and their sympathizers from Bisbee, Ariz., was sent today by the Arizona State Federation of Labor in convention here. The telegram, which was approved by unanimous vote of the delegates, follows:

"The sixth annual convention of the Arizona State Federation of Labor desires to know if you intend to act in restoring law and order in Cochise county, Ariz., and return to their homes the deported men of Bisbee. Are we to assume that the Phelps-Dodge interests are superior to the principles of democracy? An answer is awaited by this convention."

Beckoning to Revolution.

President Donnelly, in his address, declared the Bisbee deportations constituted a menace to the nation, and said the Bisbee affair was a "beckoning finger to revolution" and that the time was near when radical action would be required to preserve the "liberty and freedom which this country has enjoyed for over 140 years."

"The time has passed for quibbling," he said, "if the men of this nation are not secured absolute protection under the law, then we must do something to protect ourselves. I would say to every man and woman that you have an absolute right that arises above all other rights; a human right to avail yourselves of constitutional rights."

I. W. W.'s Leaving Columbus.

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 6.—Industrial Workers of the World refugees gradually are drifting away from Columbus, N. M., where they recently were deported from Bisbee, Ariz., according to reports to the southern department of the army received here today.

Of the original 1,150 sent there, approximately 1,000 now are left. They are not under restraint and are free to go when they desire.

BAR SOUTH TO NEGRO TROOPS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—The war department decided today that no colored regiments shall be sent with the national guard training camps in the south. The Eighth Illinois infantry is one of the regiments that will be kept at home by this order.

Objections of southern cities to having the northern colored troops sent to training camps in their midst are understood to have inspired the new decision. The fear of race riots, aroused since the riots in East St. Louis and Chester, Pa., and the trouble in southern towns where colored regulars were stationed was another compelling reason.

This decision to hold the Eighth regiment at home will make it more difficult for the Illinois troops to win recognition as a division. Colored regiments now on guard duty will be continued on that duty for the present.

Chiefs of Danish Army Out; Successors Named

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 6.—Lieut. Gen. Goertz, ranking commanding officer of the Danish army, and Maj. Gen. Berthelson, chief of the general staff, were relieved from duty today. They will be succeeded, respectively, by Lieut. Gen. Tuken and Maj. Gen. Wolff.

NATIONAL ARMY WILL BE CALLED IN FIVE RELAYS

Chance Given to Men Who Are Needed for Harvests.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—The new national army will be called out in increments of 100,000 men rather than as one unit of half a million. This was made plain today by Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder.

In an order to local draft boards Gen. Crowder stated that they might grant temporary release to men needed in harvesting crops, holding them back for this service until the later units are called into service as work of mobilization of the new army proceeds.

Called in Five Sections.

It is proposed that there shall be five increments, called at intervals of from one to two weeks, the first to be called about Sept. 1. Under this plan, men subject to draft who are needed in the harvest fields until October could be designated for the last units and thus keep at the work of garnering the nation's crops.

"Under presidential regulations," says the order, "providing that certificates of discharge on ground of industrial necessity may be temporary only, attention is called to the needlessness of using such certificates for men whose services are required in gathering the fall crops. Such necessity may be imperative, but is only temporary. Its termination will vary in the various regions and for the different crops, but can hardly continue beyond the third or fourth week of September, even in the most northerly latitudes.

No Fixed Date of Call.

"Under supplementary instructions soon to be issued covering the procedure of mobilization into cantonments, and carrying out the announcement of presidential regulations, section 48, last paragraph, the notice to persons accepted for service will not specify a fixed date for individuals to report for duty, but will leave this date to be later fixed.

"The adjutant general will notify each local board to summon, say, 20 per cent of its quota for a certain date, another percentage for a later date and so on. Each local board will select the individuals who shall form the successive contingents thus to be called."

U. S. HAS EYE ON NEW PEACE BODY

Cleveland, O., Aug. 6.—Federal agents today investigated rumors that a branch is to be formed here of a New York national society whose object is to effect peace between the United States and Germany.

A man and a woman were questioned by the federal agents concerning three secret meetings held here by promoters of the society, which is termed "the People's Council of America." Dr. F. W. Walz, temporary chairman of the three meetings held, admitted tonight a branch of the society is to be formed here.

"The purpose is to urge that the United States accept terms of peace with Germany that will preserve our democracy," he said. It was also intimated that the council would back a candidate for mayor in the fall elections here.

BRITISH BATTLE MUD, RAIN, AND HUMAN HORNETS

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Aug. 6.—A determined but futile counter attack delivered by the Germans against Hollebeke and heavy artillery bombardments on both sides represent the main activity along the battle line in Flanders during the last twenty-four hours.

In addition to the attack on Hollebeke, the Germans also delivered a counter attack against a section of the left wing of the British army above Ypres during the night, after heavy artillery preparation, but here also they were thrown back.

Mud Hampers British.

The accounts of men engaged in the capture of Hooge indicate that the second day's battle in this section was made extremely severe and doubly trying by the heavy rain that began the night before.

Hooge itself was occupied with little trouble soon after the attack began because the place had been so knocked to pieces by the British guns as to make it untenable.

The British attack began astride the Menin road, and the advancing troops had to make their way around Bellewaarde lake, just north of Hooge, in order to reach the strong line of German defenses along the Bellewaarde ridge, which dominated this section. This ridge was taken in hand to hand fighting one hour after the offensive began. The British inflicted severe casualties and captured a number of prisoners.

Push Over Swampy Ground.

From here the British pushed on into the swamp ground between the Bellewaarde ridge and the Westhoek ridge, still further east and along which runs the Frezenberg road. Tuesday night the rain fell in torrents and Wednesday morning the troops were wallowing in two feet of water and mud and in some cases were carrying on in water waist high.

Under these trying conditions for the defenders, the Germans twice counter attacked, but were unable to stand up under the heavy machine gun fire from the British positions. Since Wednesday the Germans have made no further attempt to regain this ground.

Slowly Hem In Lens.

CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Aug. 6.—Canadian troops made another successful advance last night, which carried their outposts to the main line of the enemy's defense on the railway embankment to the west of Lens.

The men of two Canadian battalions, in a dashing attack, captured a crater occupying a cross road to the east of Cite di Moulin, and a crater to the north on the Lens-Lieven road which passes through Du Moulin.

The attack for the most part was carried out with bombs, the approach being through a maze of partly destroyed houses.

Russ Defense Stiffens.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 6.—The Russian forces fighting northeast of Czernowitz in an attack drove back the enemy on several villages, capturing guns and machine guns, but later in the face of superior forces were compelled to withdraw to their main positions, according to the official report.

In central Bukowina around Radautz the Austro-Germans continue to make progress. Radiuz and several other towns have been captured and the Bystritza river has been crossed by the Germans.

RUSSIAN FRONT

RUSSIAN.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 6.—West of Brody insignificant enemy attacks were beaten off. Northeast of Czernowitz in the region of the villages of Toperrovce and Rarancze our advanced detachments, developing an offensive, occupied a series of heights and drove the enemy back to the above mentioned villages. As an outcome of a daring attack by a detachment we captured a four gun battery and some machine guns.

Afterward the enemy, advancing in superior forces, compelled our troops to retire to our main position. It being impossible to remove the guns we had captured they were rendered useless, the breeches having been removed.

South of Czernowitz the enemy continues to advance chiefly in the regions of Dolina, the River Sereth, and the Suchawa, and is pressing back our troops. The villages of Olyboka, Komenka, Wosczinec, Chdikrolva, and the town of Radautz were occupied by the enemy.

GERMAN.

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—Army group of Gen. von Boehm-Ermolli—Along the Zbrocz there have been local engagements.

Between the Dniester and the Pruth the Russians have prepared for battle.

ROUMANIAN FRONT

GERMAN.

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—Front of Archduke Joseph—Southwest of Czernowitz the enemy is offering resistance on the Roumanian frontier. Our attack is proceeding. We are now before the Sereth, and after vigorous fighting have captured Radautz. On the both sides of the Moldava and on the eastern bank of the Brystritza, several height positions were wrested from the Russian forces. Repeated Roumanian attacks on Casinului and on Little Lepsa, north of the Putna valley, failed with sanguinary losses.

Army group of Field Marshal von Mackensen—Between the mountains and the Danube the activity has revived at isolated places.

RUSSIAN.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 6.—In the direction of Kimpolung the enemy continues his offensive. Owing to the instability of certain of our units, we have been forced to retire somewhat toward the east. The enemy has crossed the Bystritza river.

AVIATION.

On the night of the 5th our airplanes dropped a number of bombs on the railway station at Baranovitchi [southwest of Minsk]. Direct hits were observed.

AUSTRIAN.

VIENNA, Aug. 6.—The success of the Roumano-Russian offensive against the front of Archduke Joseph, which has been welcomed so gladly by the entente press, apparently remains considerably below expectations. Enemy attacks on the Casina valley yesterday again were completely without result, except for heavy losses by the enemy. In the Three Land angle and in the direction of Purahumora we have made further progress. Honved and Hungarian territorial troops drove the enemy out of positions northwest of Radautz and after bravely repulsing strong Russian counter attacks entered the town.

On both sides of the Sereth we are approaching the frontier.

Southeast and northeast of Czernowitz the enemy is fiercely resisting the advance of the allies [Teutonic].

FRENCH FRONT

GERMAN.

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—Army group of Crown Prince Rupprecht—In Flanders the firing activity by day was small for the most part. During the evening the artillery duel in some sectors attained great intensity. Strong partial attacks by the British, which were launched last night and this morning against our positions between the Ypres-Menin road and the Lys were everywhere repulsed. In the crater field with which we are well acquainted, our storming troops carried out successful enterprises. Numerous prisoners were brought in. Several machine guns were salved from some of the twenty-five tanks lying destroyed before our front.

With the other armies the fighting activity was limited throughout the day to scattered fire. In the evening the activity increased between La Bassee canal and the Scarpe, as well as on the Chemin-Des Dames. Forefield engagements resulted in our favor.

AVIATION.

FRENCH.

PARIS, Aug. 6.—Both artilleries have been rather active in Champagne in the region of the Monts and on both banks of the Meuse, especially in the sectors of Avocourt and Louvemont.

DAY STATEMENT.

In Belgium there was no change in the situation.

Attacks made by the enemy to the east of the farm of Noisy in the region south of Bovelle in the Avocourt wood and in Alsace were repulsed by our fire. The artillery fire in these sectors was fairly spirited at various times.

The night was calm on the rest of the front.

BRITISH.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—An enemy attempt to raid our trenches early this morning north of Arleux was caught by our rifle and machine gun fire before reaching our line and driven off with severe casualties.

We advanced our lines slightly today southwest and west of Lens.

AVIATION.

Yesterday after several days of inactivity due to unfavorable weather our airplanes again were able to carry out successful bombing raids and other work. In air fighting five German airplanes were downed, of which one was forced to land behind our lines. Three others were driven down out of control. One of our machines is missing.

DAY STATEMENT.

Early last night the enemy attacked in the neighborhood of Hollebeke. He was driven off before reaching our lines. Attack made under cover of a heavy barrage against our positions at Westkoek was equally unsuccessful.

BELGIAN.

PARIS, Aug. 6.—During the night the enemy artillery was active against our communications. Gas shells were fired in the region of Ramacapelle. Some patrol fighting took place to the south of Dixmude. A few projectiles fell during the day on various parts of the front.

ITALIAN FRONT

ITALIAN.

ROME, Aug. 6.—On the Trentino front enemy reconnoitering parties were repulsed and our patrols harassed the enemy at various points, capturing some prisoners in the Rio d'Andraz valley.

On the Carnia front our fire drove back an enemy company which had begun an attack upon our position on Mount Granuda, in the Felia valley.

On the Julian front enemy detachments who obstinately contested for possession of an advanced position on Mount Rombon were definitely driven back by our storming parties, after a keen struggle.

Southeast of Roscomalo we were able by a rapid thrust to include in our line some lines nearby. In the neighborhood of Flondar one of our patrols captured some prisoners.

AUSTRIAN.

VIENNA, Aug. 6.—Yesterday the enemy artillery extended its fire with varying violence on the whole Isonzo front from Tolmino to the sea.

MACEDONIAN FRONT

FRENCH.

PARIS, Aug. 6.—There has been some patrol fighting in the valley of the Struma. The enemy attempted two surprise attacks, one in the Cerna bend and the other between Lakes Presba and Ochrida. Both were repulsed. To the west of Malick a column which started from Koritza compelled the enemy to evacuate the heights to the south of Kacata.

GERMAN.

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—The position is unchanged.

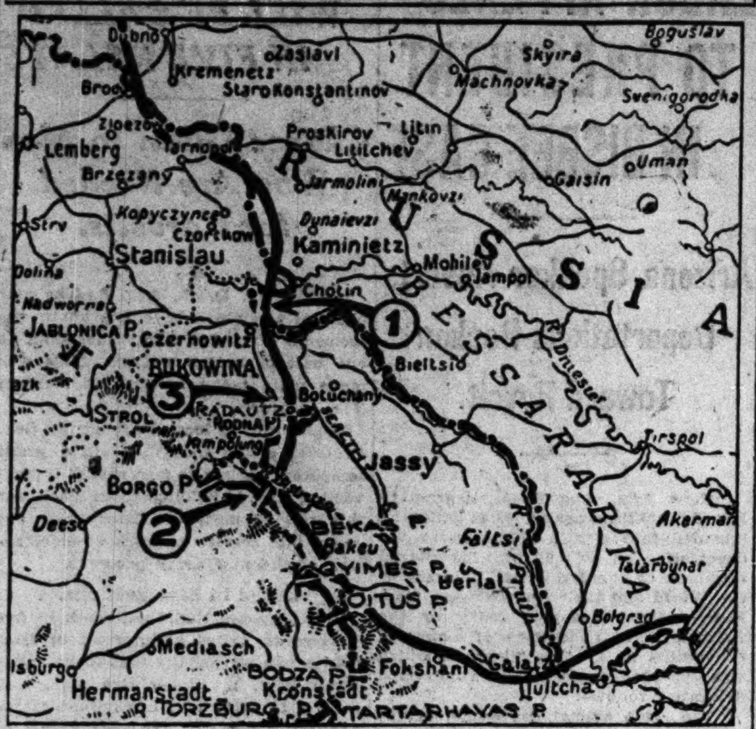
SUPPLEMENTARY

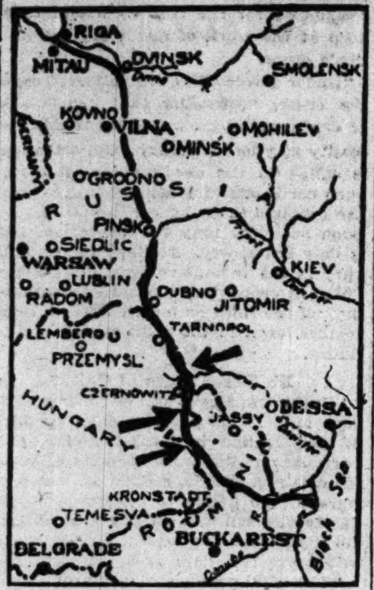
GERMAN.

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—There were no fighting operations on a large scale in the west.

Our troops made progress in Bukowina.

THE TURNING POINT?





1—Russians spring offensive between Dniester and Pruth rivers, but are forced to retire to former positions. Berlin reports Russians preparing to give battle in this sector.

"I Couldn't Keep House Without the Multigraph"

—Says W. K. Page, Sales and Adv. Manager Addressograph Company

"I surely do use the Multigraph," says Mr. Page. "No—I cannot tell you anything about it mechanically, but if a good machine is a machine that produces consistent good work for over five years, then the Multigraph is that kind of machine. I don't believe that I have seen our machine for six months, but I see the work it produces every day—and it is excellent.

"The manager of our Stationery Department reports that for the first six months of this year the Multigraph saved us $1869.00. We use it exclusively for printing factory forms, office forms, letters, sales bulletins and imprinting circulars, booklets and the like.

"Our Multigraph is at work all day, every day—it is a mighty important factor in our Stationery Department, and a bigger one in my sales promotion work."

Being Economical In War Time

Economy must be judged in the light of common sense.

Intelligent economy can help this nation conserve every atom of food, labor and wealth; stupid economy can lead the nation only to disaster.

Intelligent economy is based on care, not acquisitiveness; it means prudence, not hoarding; thrift, not parsimony.

Money should be used carefully; it should be spent wisely. Qualities should be retained; standards maintained. Extravagant economy has no defense. The evidence shows that this country is passing from a stage of ordinary prosperity to one that is to be extraordinary.

The proof is all about us. In this country in former days the spending of millions heralded national prosperity; today the spending is of billions.

What a pay roll! The golden deluge is about to flood us everywhere. Work will be piled up before us—for all of us. So much is to be done that all our energy, all our strength, all our resources will have to be conserved for the larger tasks.

The trend of public activities shows that standards of living, established after generations of progress, will not be imperiled.

Economize—intelligently.

CITY VACATES ALLEY TO HELP BIG BILL'S LOTS

Nicholas Kyriakopoulos, west side banker, along in January, 1916, bought twenty-four feet of frontage from Mayor Thompson on East Sixty-third street, near Drexel avenue. Some time thereabouts or later a tract "across the alley," fronting on Sixty-third place, was sold by Mayor Thompson.

John N. Kimball, alderman from the Seventh ward, introduced a resolution in the council for the vacating of the alley between the two. Then last spring another section of the same alley, adjoing, was vacated. Some one got the hunch that it would be nice to "vacate" two little triangular bits of alley, one on each side of these two. It was done.

Squaring Things.

Now comes Alexander Simpson and buys from Isadore Jacobson twenty-four feet of frontage right next to the twenty-four feet sold by Mayor Thompson. It also butted up against the alley that was vacated. Somehow in the deal it was thought good, in "recompense," that two funny shaped bits of land next the alley be "vacated" by the owners—given to the city. That, too, was done.

Next looms up the Woodlawn Theater company as owner of the six little separate parcels sold by Mayor Thompson, the one piece sold by Jacobson, and the four sections of public alley which were closed and turned over to private parties.

Theater Owner a Mystery.

Now a building permit has been issued for a theater. Efforts to find out who will own the theater were unavailing last night. William J. Moore, president of the American Bond and Mortgage company, Royal Insurance building, which has made a loan of $150,000 to build the theater, said it's a secret.

It will be an exclusive motion picture theater, he explained, very ornate, as the plans, which are all drawn, will show. He remarked that it will seat more people on the ground floor than any other theater in Chicago. The entrance is to be on Sixty-third street, but the building proper will run from "the alley" through to Sixty-third place, between Drexel and Maryland. It will have a depth of 265 feet and a width of 134 feet.

"Almost a Holdup."—Kimball.

Ald. Kimball defended the vacating of the alley, saying:

"Why, I think we almost held them up! They paid the city money—I don't remember how much, but about $700, I think—for the first section of alley vacated."

"How much for the rest?" he was asked.

"Well, they gave eight feet off the north and eight feet off the east of the property for alleyway," he said.

Part of this were the odd shaped bits given, it is understood, to get the good will of Messrs. Fitzer and Fuller, who own abutting lots. On the east, well, it helps, perhaps, to make good fire exits, as per ordinance.

Land Valued at $60,000.

Everybody who goes to a show in the theater will cross the "vacated alley" which once was public property but which was vacated to private ownership. Mr. Moore said that the building alone would cost $250,000 and that the land is valued easily at $60,000—including the Jacobson tract.

He declined to estimate the true value of the William Hale Thompson property. Asked if it was worth more than $45,000, he said, "O, yes."

The vacating of the alley was excused by another man connected with the deal in these words: "Why, without the use of the alley, it wouldn't have been available at all for the purpose."

Col. Foreman Passed as Fit by U. S. Medical Examiners

Col. Milton J. Foreman of the Second Illinois artillery passed the medical examination for federal service yesterday, he was informed by members of the medical staff who examined him. A large number of other officers also were informed that they had passed.

Col. Foreman seemed rather jovial over the news, but said that he could see no reason why he should be rejected, as he was always in the best of health. He said that the next best news that could come to him would be the order to prepare to sail for France. He said that he had seen service in the Spanish-American war, also a little service during the Mexican trouble, but if he would not be disqualified for physical disability he would be willing to give a couple of fingers and toes to get to France.

SECOND ARTILLERY
("Streeterville.")

The medical officers and the mustering officers started to work yesterday. The mustering is under the direction of Lieut. Col. Eddy of the First infantry.

The examinations broke up the day's work yesterday. Rolling packs and handling harness is the main topic for this week's work. The men will be taught all the principles of infantry drill and regulations.

The men are improving in health. When they got out into the open on July 25 most of them showed signs of a hard winter in close offices. Now after a little more than two weeks of open air work they are pictures of health.

SEVENTH INFANTRY.
(3401 Wentworth Avenue.)

Now that the Seventh is made up of real Sammy doughboys they have started a series of hikes to accustom themselves to the hardships of travel. Today at 8 a. m., when most people are straphanging on the cars, the Seventh will start on the first five mile hike of the season. They will march to "somewhere on Thirty-fifth street" and back—five miles in all.

Yesterday the regular routine work held the stage. Throughout the day the men drilled, practiced and studied. Tuberculosis tests will start almost any time now, but since the men got by the federal medical inspectors at the regular examinations, the new tests are not worrying them much.

SECOND INFANTRY
(2653 West Madison street.)

Now that the regular examinations are over and the mustering officers have cleared out, new medical men come into the west side armory and start all over on the men. This time they are looking for tuberculosis. They got started yesterday morning and will be finished in a few days.

Th ecomamnding officers of the Second are hoping the south park board will allow them to use Grant park as a camping ground. The matter will be put before the board today when they get a letter from the officers of the regiment.

"Having Grant park for a camping ground for the regiment will have several advantages," declared Capt. E. A. Lutter, regimental adjutant. "First it will give the men a chance to drill on a field that is suited for the purpose, and not cramped up on a street. Then the armory is no place to drill soldiers for war. They must have plenty of room and be in the open. Then being out in the open in tents, you have everything ready and when the call comes all that you have to do is to take down the tents, pack them, and go."

EIGHTH INFANTRY
(3517 Forest Avenue.)

They are patiently waiting for equipment at the Eighth. There is not much else for them to do, now that the medical officers and the mustering officers have completed their work. The regular routine work is taking up all the time.

TEMPLE BANK A BIG FACTOR IN FERGUSON CASE

Texas House Seeks Light on State Deposits in Institution.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 6.—Deposits of state funds in the Temple State bank, of which Gov. James E. Ferguson formerly was president and in which he is a large stockholder, today occupied the attention of the house of representatives, sitting as a committee of the whole to investigate charges looking into the impeachment of the chief executive.

Henry Blum, assistant cashier, told how the governor, the secretary of state, and the banking commissioner deposited large sums in the Temple institution, at one time several hundred thousands of dollars of state funds being on deposit there.

The testimony related to business from early in 1913 down to the present time, and showed that at one time several hundred thousand dollars of state money were on deposit in what has sometimes been referred to as "the governor's bank."

Witness Has Bad Memory.

When asked by M. M. Crane, counsel for the house committee, about the payment on Aug. 23, 1916, of $5,600 from the account of Mr. Ferguson as governor, he could remember nothing of it except that there had been an error discovered in the balances. The governor is charged by indictment with embezzling $5,600 on Aug. 23, 1916.

When Blum had been turned over to W. A. Hanger, counsel for Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Hanger asked him if the governor in addition to the governor's account did not also have a special account and a private account. Blum answered affirmatively.

"I'll ask you," Mr. Hanger said, "what amount the governor had on deposit in his special account on Aug. 23, 1916?"

"Forty dollars and thirty-two cents," Blum replied without hesitation.

Mr. Crane took back the witness and asked what amount Mr. Ferguson had in his private account on Aug. 23, 1916.

It developed that he was overdrawn to the extent of $30,641.82 that date.

Shows State Funds Deposits.

Blum read a long list of figures showing the deposits of state funds at the Temple bank. Usually the daily balances started with small figures and mounted up to big ones. Then there would be a drop and then another rise. At one time the secretary of state's account showed a balance above $93,000 and at another $85 000. On one day in May, 1917, it climbed to $354,841. The banking commissioner's balance never was so high, although it once totaled $16,478.

"Did any one draw interest on these official accounts?" asked Mr. Crane.

"Not that I know of," Blum replied.

"Did the Temple state bank ever carry any state accounts before Mr. Ferguson became governer?" the witness was asked.

"No," he replied.

"Was the governor charged any interest on his $30,000 overdraft?" was one interjection from Mr. Crane.

"He was—10 per cent," the witness rejoined.

SMOKES SHIPPED; MORE NEEDED TO SOLACE TROOPS

Tobacco Is Now on the Way to Sammies in France.

"Fifty-fifty tobacco for the soldiers in France" is spreading over the central west, with the result that even those who do not smoke are making it their business to see that the "Sammies" do not continue to find their comfort in "hay."

From Rossville, Ill., J. S. McMahon writes to say the local young men have started a fund to provide a shipment of tobacco. The United Irish League of Chicago and Cook County has voted to devote a portion of the proceeds of the Aug. 15 demonstration and picnic in Gaelic park to THE TRIBUNE's fund for smokes.

Miss Gertrude Adams, cashier of Huyler's, 17 West Washington street, writes to say that although she has no relatives in the army, she will contribute $1 a week to buy smokes for the "Sammies."

Ask Receptacle for Smokes.

A number of enthusiasts have written to suggest that each cigar store provide a receptacle for tobacco wherein each patron may drop the other portion of his "50-50" purchase. In keeping with this suggestion, A. R. Haines of the Sulphur Steam baths, Sixty-second street and Cottage Grove avenue, has offered the use of space in his establishment for smokes contributions.

And most interesting of all to the men in Europe, is the announcement hereby made that a huge crate of tobacco and cigars and cigarets was turned over to the quartermaster's department by THE TRIBUNE yesterday for shipment to France.

Cash and Smokes Come In.

Yesterday TRIBUNE readers came to the front with cartons and boxes and tins of tobacco, cigarets and cigars and also a cash fund to the amount of $29 to be added to the grand total which now is mounting to very respectable proportions. Among the cash contributors were "S. T. H.," with $2; Mrs. B. C. Bachrach, $5; "A. D. S.," $5; "Evanston," $5; Dr. W. E. Tribley, $5 and H. P. Pringle, $2.

The Trimming, Lining and Button salesmen of Chicago sent a shipment containing several gross of plug and smoking tobacco and cigarets—$66.80 worth in all. E. V. Eheman, sent pipes, cigarets and "makin's" for Sergt, M. E. McCosh, base hospital Unit 12. L. Weaver, Madison, Wis., a tin of cigars; Joseph Warren, 2430 West Madison street, a bundle of smoking, chewing and cigarets; W. E. Miller, cigars and three tins of smoking tobacco; Larus Bros. & Co., a box of smoking tobacco; "anonymous," one box cigars; Mrs. Andrew Jackson, Oshkosh, Wis., a box of cigars.

Gen. Barry Writes of Impression Made by Men from Training Camp.

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—The following letter from Gen. Thomas H. Barry, commander of the central department of the army, was received today by Col. William J. Nicholson, commanding the training camp:

"I cannot speak in too high praise of the magnificent appearance made by the training camp men in this morning's parade. The impression they made on everybody who was fortunate enough to witness the parade will be lasting, and should convince all of the necessity for and the great benefits to be derived from universal service and training.

"Chicago never saw a more magnificent body of intellectually, morally, and physically perfect young American manhood than they saw today in the training camp regiments, including the training camp men who magnificently handled the selected men. I congratulate them and you and all the instructors at the camp for the wonderful results attained in the last three months.

"I am satisfied, too, that the selected men were impressed by the proficiency of the men who are to command them."

BE SQUARE, IS FINAL WORD TO MEN AT CAMP

Nicholson Warns Student Officers to Avoid Influences.

Fort Sheridan, Ill., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Impressing upon the student officers the responsibility they are about to undertake, Col. William J. Nicholson tonight sounded the keynote of success as a commissioned officer in the United States army. He urged the men to be square above all and to show no favoritism, regardless of what pressure from political or other sources be brought to bear. Col. Nicholson was one of three speakers at the first of a series of three farewell receptions to student officers held at the Y. M. C. A. building.

W. F. Hypes of Marshall Field & Co., the guest of honor, spoke at length upon the work the Y. M. C. A. is doing for the men in training, the men already in France, and for others who have taken up arms in the country's defense. Mr. Hypes is president of the Chicago branch of the organiaztion.

He termed the three months' training course which the men have just passed through here as "a four year West Point course boiled down."

Charles B. Pike, a member of the training camp association, outlined the work of the organization since its inception in 1913 and concluded with an invitation to all of the men present to become members.

It was stated on reliable authority that the list of commissions will be given out Thursday.

DEATH PENALTY DEMANDED FOR DRAFT FIGHTERS

Oklahoma City, Okla., Aug. 6.—The death penalty has been demanded by federal officials against the leaders of the anti-draft uprisings, which, led by leaders of the so-called Working Class union, have thrown the counties of central Oklahoma into turmoil for the last four days.

Their action has been declared by United States District Attorney W. P. McGinnis to constitute treason. Hearings will be started tomorrow at MacAlester before Federal Commissioner R. W. McMillen.

With the entrance of the government agents into the case today with warrants against the arrested terrorists it is believed the back of the protest against service in the new national forces has been broken.

$750,000 Collier Now $2,000,000.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 6.—The collier Deep Water, said to be the largest vessel of this type constructed for the American merchant marine, has been sold to the American and Italian Steamship company by Darrow, Main & Co. of this city, it was announced today. The price was $2,000,000, as compared with $750,000, the cost of construction several years ago.

TREASONABLE AGITATION.

The trouble over the draft in Oklahoma was the result, evidently, of the work of malevolent or near sighted recalcitrants upon an ignorant element in the populace. Violent egotism refusing to abandon untenable principles for national good, and unbalanced radicals trying to corrupt good sense and impose on weak minds, have succeeded in causing a petty rebellion against authority.

What was done in Oklahoma can be done anywhere, and may be done if the vicious propaganda against the government be not stopped. Some of the viciousness is cloaked in good intentions and high principles, but the effect of it is just as vicious.

There are as many chances of disorder in Chicago as there are in the isolated counties of Oklahoma. If the same incentives to disorder are allowed to work here, the same result will be obtained—unless fear of the law and recognition of the fact that it is equipped to handle such situations discourage the malcontents.

The point overlooked by the protestants, who are of seeming good character, and disregarded by the radicals who care nothing about character, is that ignorance and selfishness, excited by the work of scheming men, may be set in action against the necessary processes of government in a treasonable fashion.

We have some press matter from the People's Council, of which David Starr Jordan is treasurer, which outlines a program containing, as an item, a resolve to work for the repeal of the conscription laws.

These visionaries, whatever they may conceive their plans to be, are in fact at work against the government. They stimulate people to think that the draft law is unjust and that the men chosen under it are victims of injustice.

The repeal of the selective conscription law, happily an impossibility, would throw the military arrangements of the United States into confusion and bring them to futility. Such a thing would be equivalent to a disastrous defeat. And yet there are men who would know what to call a traitor who betrayed an army willing to get to the same result by trying to prevent the raising of any army.

They do more than that. Their efforts will not accomplish the ostensible purpose, but they may impair the work being done to create the American morale. When sensible and loyal citizens are doing their best to build this up the egotistic recalcitrants are doing their best to break it down. The offense is serious.

This comment is for the class of protestants which assumes that it thinks and that it has ideals. The same damaging work is done by violent and ignorant rebels against all kinds of established order, and by selfish politicians who are capable of seeking personal advantage to the hurt of their country.

American sentiment is so tolerant of abuses in the expression of opinion that it allows the national enemies who are within the nation to cross the threshold of free speech and do as they please in the domain of treason.

Freedom of speech is not license for deliberate plotting against national security, and a good deal of what is being done and said against the government program is traitorous.

We have an idea that when the seriousness of the business now engaged in becomes visible there will be less patience for men who work against their country.

BROKEN RUSSIAN MORALE.

The Russian military morale seems to have broken down under the influence of the instinct of self-preservation. Discipline has yielded to this elemental influence which discipline modifies, regulates, and governs.

Such a contagion can affect whole armies and calls for exactly the drastic measures which even such an extreme humanitarian as Kerensky has now been forced to adopt. If one part of an army consults safety rather than courage it seems hopeless and futile for another part to make a sacrifice which has been made useless by the withdrawal of support.

Desperation may suggest to the braver troops that they set a heroic example to the elements which have broken down, but it is more likely to suggest the hopelessness of dying when other men are fleeing.

Even troops under discipline may be taken by panic at a sudden shock or severe punishment and find themselves disgraced in a rout, but the continuing suggestion in the Russian armies, apparently, is that the individual has nothing to sacrifice himself for and has everything to gain by getting out of the way of danger.

It is not so much a matter of bravery. The same men in better conditions would do as Russian troops have done and would fight courageously, but when the poison of self-preservation gets into a military organization the morale of the organization is gone.

In the soldier psychology there is no desire to die. There is a desire to live, but the dread of danger which is so appalling to the civilian has been modified. It is not a constant horror because the individual has been trained to consider not his own safety, but the execution of commands.

If the individual gets out from under command and begins to think of his safety as the most important consideration affecting him, the whole soldier psychology is broken down, the army becomes a mob, and death is as menacing to the man in uniform as it is to the civilian.

The Russian army seems to have resolved itself into a huge collection of individuals who do not want to fight because they do not want to die. They have nothing definite in their minds any longer to fight for. There is no commanding figurehead to which to give obedience.

Possibly the best hope for a restoration of morale is to be found in the fact that even an untrained populace will arm against invasion, and these trained soldiers may turn to fight a conqueror. If Russia were not a composite of jealous provinces, or provinces indifferent to each other, the hope might be stronger.

Well informed men profess their optimism and we should like to accept belief in the probability of a strengthened Russian resistance. Every retreating Russian may call out one more American soldier.

APPOINTMENTS TO THE NATIONAL GUARD.

Several recent appointments to the Illinois national guard are difficult to understand on any other hypothesis than that of personal or political favor. This is the more surprising that Gov. Lowden in his civil appointments has shown not only a disposition but a determination to appoint only on a basis of merit.

We cannot believe that the governor, who himself was a guard officer once, fails to appreciate the fact that if an unfit civil appointment means a waste of public money, an unfit military appointment means a waste of human life. If the one is deplorable, the other is nothing less than murderous.

We realize that the country is short of educated officers. We realize that many men who are not fully qualified must be put in military positions. But certainly until our resources are completely exhausted, if at all, appointments, especially to high command, should not be made on pull.

The war department seems to be following the right principle, and it would be a crying shame if governors of states should utilize their appointing power to inundate the guard with incompetents with pulls while the war department is giving the new army the benefit of the best available material.

The war department, however, should be careful not to give governors an excuse for doing this by a refusal to permit regular army officers to go to national guard organizations. THE TRIBUNE already has noted this mistake of policy, and hopes it will not be persisted in. We have no idea it is Secretary Baker's fault, and we do not hesitate to claim the privilege of a long proved friend of the regular service and remind the general staff that it is in a very real sense on trial, even with its ardent friends, and must not allow service or personal jealousies or an undue sense of relative advancement to produce unfortunate results.

No governor should be given an excuse for appointing an untrained civilian to lead a regiment while there are regular captains available. Even a regular lieutenant of good record is more fit for a colonelcy than a civilian.

There should be close coöperation between the war department and the governors in this as in other respects, and their common purpose should be to make our professional military officer material go as far as possible to cover all three armies—regular, guard, and new army.

SPLIT IT FIFTY-FIFTY.

An American soldier might acquire a taste for French tobacco. In desperation he might smoke hay or cabbage leaves. The admirable French nation with its wonderful estheticism, is dull to the qualities of tobacco. An American can learn to smoke what he can buy in France. The process is so painful that the habit of smoking is for a while more a punishment than a pleasure.

The government does nothing for the troops in this respect. What they get in the way of pleasant smoking will come from contributors in the United States. When you buy one, say "Have one" to some doughboy in France. THE TRIBUNE will send them.

DANGEROUS PEACE TALK.

THE TRIBUNE has suggested that a more full and emphatic definition of the war's purposes might well be made for popular comprehension and understanding, but that was in the idea that the national morale and the will to win would be best stimulated by a unified national understanding of purposes.

The proposal that we begin to talk of peace before we begin to fight for it is cut from another bolt of goods. To indicate and preach the plain purposes of the war, marshaling the full damaging array of facts upon which the government has acted, would be to encourage the resolve of Americans to obtain by fighting the peace which is necessary to American stability.

To whine for peace conferences before American strength has begun to work for the peace needed would hit the national morale a damaging blow. That begs the whole question. It assumes that we have nothing to fight for because everything we need could be obtained by a conference.

To ask that the nation be stimulated by a clear perception of its purposes is one thing. To ask that it be doped by ideas that peace is possible without effort is another. One is a tonic. The other is an opiate. The United States is struggling to awake and act. The influences which are working for an unearned and unsatisfactory peace are trying to rock the nation to sleep again.

FRANK LITTLE'S DEATH.

[From the Keweenaw (Mich.) Miner.]

A feeling akin to horror seizes one when we read of the hanging of Frank Little at Butte this week. It seems inhuman, but the old saying is "that those who draw the sword will perish by the sword," and there seems to be grim connection with the saying and the death of Little. At the time that James C. Myron was brutally murdered by I. W. W. agitators on the Mesaba range last year Little was arrested in connection with the matter, as he was one of the rabid trouble makers there. Shortly before his death he stigmatized the United States troops as scabs in uniform. He respected no law nor order and said that the constitution of the United States was simply a scrap of paper that could be and should be torn up.

His lawless acts did not justify resort to the old lynch law of Montana, but his death must be a warning to all who would cripple this country when it and its best blood is fighting for the life of the land we love, our own United States.

The thinking people of the United States are in no mood when its existence is in danger to have patience with people who are disloyal and who are helping its enemies, and the lesson conveyed by the untimely end of Little should be one that will make enemies of the country think seriously before they engage in acts that are regarded as traitorous.

"THE European experts also explode the tale of liberal doses of rum before battle. Rum, they maintain, should only be used at times when no other appetizers are to be had, and then in very limited quantities (at the end of the day, with the main meal, and just before the men can turn in for their night's sleep)."

This agrees with the reply of a Canadian from the trenches, to whom we put the question, "When do they pass out rum?" Said he, "In the morning."

Proud of my knowledge, I answered, "The ——— & ———." "Oh, indeed!" he exclaimed, in a long circumflex. And again, "Oh, indeed!" INSECT BITES.

AT this season of the year chiggers or red bugs are annoying. The old fashioned remedies are soap, butter, vaseline, and kerosene. The Journal of the American Medical Association found a new lot of methods in a Brazilian medical journal.

The bites are treated with benzine or with an alcoholic solution of benzoin. Either of these will kill the parasites at once and permit removal without leaving the head embedded.

Tincture of pyretheum is also used both to kill the parasite and to prevent it from getting on the body. Pyretheum is the ordinary insect powder of the drug stores.

Mentholated petrolatum or vaseline when applied to the "bites" kills the parasites and soothes the irritation. Rubbing the "bites" with alcoholic extract of tobacco kills the parasites.

To repell mosquitoes:
Oil of cedar—One ounce.
Oil of citronella—Two ounces.
Spirits of camphor—Two ounces.

This should be applied frequently to the hands and face. A correspondent saturates bands with this mixture and fastens them around the wrists, ankles, and in the hat band.

Where the surface of ponds can be covered and kept covered with oil the use of a larvacide is advised. On the isthmus they found the most satisfactory lavarcide to be made by properly mixing fifteen parts of rosin, three parts of soda, and 120 parts of carbolic acid. Oiling is done with a mixture of crude oil and kerosene, the proportion of the latter depending on the atmospheric temperature. In Panama they could use crude oil 20 degrees Baume. In the United States probably such an oil would not work unless diluted with coal oil.

The best method of ridding a room of fleas is to sprinkle the carpet or rug with powdered moth balls. Close the room, leave for a day, and then sweep up and re-cover the chemical. If there is no rug on the floor place one there for the purpose of attracting the fleas. Fleas breed in floor dust. They cannot breed on a floor that is kept clean.

To relieve the irritation from a flea bite wash with ammonia water or soda water and apply mentholated vaseline.

An effective way of keeping ants from tables and such places is to bind cords saturated in Balsam Peru around the legs. Woodworth kills ants by putting out a solution of arsenic one-fourth per cent in sirup. The best way is to saturate a sponge with it and put this in a jar with a perforated top.

To allay the irritation from ant bites wash with soda water or ammonia water and apply mentholated vaseline. The irritation from wasp bites can be relieved in the same manner.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY

[Copyright: 1917: By the Brentwood Co.]

QUITE early in the present war the septuagenarian Duke of Cumberland, who was born as crown prince of the kingdom of Hanover, and who is a scion of the sovereign house of Great Britain, became insane. He was found wandering completely demented in the woods around the Gmunden lake in Austria, on the shores of which he has a beautiful palace, and has been under restraint there ever since. His palace at Gmunden, familiar to all transatlantic tourists who have visited that part of Austria, has become something akin to a retreat for the insane. For he has now been joined there in his gilded captivity by his only surviving son, the sovereign Duke Ernest of Brunswick, in whose favor he surrendered his rights to the throne of the duchy of Brunswick-Luneburg, just four years ago.

The young duke, who in May, 1913, married the only daughter of the kaiser at Berlin, King George and ex-Emperor Nicholas being present at the ceremony, has, according to latest advices from Austria, through Switzerland, become completely and incurably crazy, rendering his internment necessary, and it has been considered wiser, from a dynastic point of view, to place him under restraint, in his childhood home of Gmunden, along with his father, rather than in his own dominions, where the spectacle of a demented sovereign is not calculated to strengthen popular regard and respect for the monarchy, or the belief in divine right.

At Gmunden the lunatic father and son are cared for by the old duke's consort, Princess Thyra of Denmark, at one time the fiancée of the prince imperial of France, and who herself in her younger days spent a couple of years in the great private insane asylum of Doebling, near Vienna, owing to a temporary loss of her reason.

Meanwhile the young Duchess of Brunswick is administering the government of her husband's duchy, as regent, for the benefit of her little 3 year old boy, the Crown Prince of Brunswick, who, owing to the mental incapacity of his father and grandfather, both of whose cases have been pronounced incurable, has become the chieftain of the ancient and historic houses of Este and of Guelph.

Relatively little has been heard of the Duke of Brunswick since the beginning of the war. He was said to have joined his wife's younger brothers in looting and carousing in the royal Belgian palaces of Laeken and of Brussels, treating Queen Elizabeth's most intimate belongings, and her most precious souvenirs with a most revolting degree of vandalism and of indignity, such as excited the disgust of the Bavarian troops and officers. They could not forget that Queen Elizabeth had been a most popular member of their reigning house, and there was not only much bad blood among them against the Prussian officers and men generally, and against the Duke of Brunswick and his Hohenzollern brothers-in-law in particular, but even some fighting, so that the Bavarian troops had to be withdrawn.

A little later on it was reported that the duke's nervous system had received such a nervous shock when, among other horrors on the eastern front, he saw an entire brigade of his troops perish to a man in a Polish morass, disappearing beneath the surface of the ground without leaving a trace, that he had to be invalided home for rest and treatment. Since then nothing has been heard of him definitely until the authoritative news of his arrival, under restraint, at Gmunden, for internment there with his crazy father. Inasmuch as his wife, the young duchess, has continued to act as regent since the beginning of the war, it may be taken for granted that the treatment which he received on his return from the eastern front in the spring of 1915 was not successful, and that his mind has really been unhinged ever since.

A terrible fate seems to dog the footsteps of the Duke of Brunswick's family, and it may be hoped that the curse placed upon the young duke's great-grandfather, Ernest, Duke of Cumberland, the best looking but the most evil of the sons of George III. of Great Britain, will have reached its fulfillment in "Brunswick's fated chieftain" of today and will spare his two little boys.

The curse in question was placed upon King George III.'s son, Ernest of Cumberland, by the peasant mother of his Swiss valet Senlis, who had been found murdered, under the most mysterious and shocking circumstances, in St. James' palace. The woman lent credence to the popular rumors attributing the man's death of the duke, and meeting him in St. James street one day, went down on her knees and called down every awful curse upon him and upon his descendants, unto the third and fourth generation, before the police were able to interfere and the duke could escape.

The duke died as King Ernest of Hanover, after having been foiled in a conspiracy to usurp the British throne from his niece, Queen Victoria, daughter and heiress of his elder brother, the Duke of Kent. He was an object of intense public hatred in England, where he resided until the separation of the kingdom of Hanover from the crown of Great Britain, on the death of William IV. He was even still more abhorred in Hanover, where he spent the remainder of his days.

His only son and heir, the last King of Hanover, was stone blind throughout the greater portion of his adult life, and lost both his throne and the major portion of his fortune in the war of 1866. His only son in turn, the now demented Duke of Cumberland, came into the world without a nose, and the one which he has worn since his childhood is a triumph of surgery rather than of nature. His life was embittered by the refusal of the German empire, and especially of the Berlin government, to permit him to take possession of the throne of Brunswick, to which he had become entitled, as the next heir, on the death of his cousin, Duke William of Brunswick, in 1884.

The Duke of Cumberland's elder son, a very attractive and interesting lad, was crippled as a youngster through blood poisoning of the right leg, resulting from the laceration by a rusty nail, in climbing a fence. He was killed two years before the war in an auto accident.

Count Pierre de Pimodan's marriage to Mlle. de Brossin, in the Church of St. Philippe du Roule in Paris the other day, took place very quietly, owing to the recent death of the venerable grandmother of the bridegroom, the Marquise and Duchess of Pimodan, and also because of the brevity of his furlough from the front, where he has been serving for some time past as lieutenant of the Sixth Senegal or West African regiment of infantry. The bridegroom is the nephew of the present chief of the fine old house of De Rarecourt-Pimodan, all the male members of which are Roman dukes, their titles as such being registered by the crown of Bavaria, as well as counts of Austria.

CONTINUE PAYMENTS.

Chicago, July 30.—[To the Friend of the Insured.]—I have a twenty year policy in the Pittsburgh Life and Trust company, which is in the hands of a receiver. There are only four more premiums to be paid. I would not like to pay in any more money unless the insurance is good, but if I do not keep up my payments the policy will lapse. Would you advise me to continue? There is a premium due Aug. 19. G. H. T.

We should advise you to continue the payments. An arrangement has been made whereby the Metropolitan Life will take over the policies. It is possible that the protection may be somewhat reduced, but, on the other hand, it may be continued in full. The interests of the policy holders are being looked after by the insurance department of New York and Pennsylvania.

HIGH RATES FOR AGED.

Chicago, Ill., July 24.—[To the Friend of the Insured.]—My father at the age of 49 rerated in the Royal League for whole life protection, with the understanding that it would be the last rise in rates. Now, at the age of 69 years, with a small income, this fraternity has compelled him to pay triple his former rates or drop his policy. Is it legal for them to do this?

A READER IN SUSPENSE.

We are unable to pass upon the legality of the increase in rates by the Royal League. The fact that a member as a young man got insurance at a low rate ought to reconcile him to paying a high rate when he becomes old. Insurance companies and societies can pay claims only out of money received. If a member does not pay in enough when he is young to create a reserve, he must in his old age meet the heavy cost at the higher ages by heavy payments. As a matter of fact, fraternals seldom have the courage to charge their old members the full cost of their insurance.

WELL MANAGED COMPANY.

Chicago, July 13.—[To the Friend of the Insured.]—Will you be kind enough to give me your opinion of the K. association? I have carried a policy with the company for a number of years, and will be glad to have your advice regarding the same. My age is 50. I carry sufficient other insurance for necessary protection. E.

There is no criticism of assessment insurance where the holder knows what he has and does not rely on it for more protection than it can give at current premiums. Cost is the only question where the holder is fully informed, although ability to get other insurance may be a factor if the cost goes up. There are many well managed assessment companies, including the one you inquire about.

SURPLUS OF $113,082.

Niles, Mich., July 30.—[To the Friend of the Insured.]—Please give me any information you may have on the financial standing of the Preferred Life Insurance Company of America, Grand Rapids, Mich. I understand this company has consolidated with the Merchants Life Insurance company of Burlington, Ia. Is this true?

ALBERT R. RAHN.

The Preferred Life on Jan. 1 reported assets of $623,296 and surplus to policyholders of $113,082. On the same date the Merchants Life reported assets of $1,623,241 and surplus to policyholders of $282,715. The consolidation has been agreed upon.

PROTECTED BY LAW.

Chicago, July 16.—[To the Friend of the Insured.]—Will you kindly let me know how the M. Life Insurance company is getting along? Do you consider that company a reliable one to be insured in? Also advise what kind of policy, in your estimation, is best.

CARL W. NELSON.

Policyholders in the company you inquire about are protected by the laws concerning old line companies. The company is not making much progress. For a middle aged or elderly man an ordinary life policy is considered the best. For a young man a limited payment endowment policy is considered desirable.

TRIBUNE INSURANCE EDITOR.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

ALLEGES FIRE INSURANCE COMBINE.

Coldwater, Mich., Aug. 3.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I read with interest the comment of C. M. Cartwright upon the report of Insurance Commissioner Hardison on fire waste. Its estimate of the unnecessary fire loss of the nation was, if anything, too modest.

It admitted that notwithstanding the efforts to reduce this fire waste by the companies it was increasing. Mr. Hardison, in common with almost all insurance officials, in harmony with the insurance companies, again appeals to legislatures, to municipal councils, and to government officials to stop this waste by vigorous action. This is just where he will find deaf ears until reforms precede such appeals.

A few facts that may be verified from the reports of any state or from any codification of fire insurance data in this country may not be uninteresting: For twenty-five years the stock fire insurance companies have been collecting in premiums from the insured $2 for every dollar returned in losses. These stock fire insurance companies are in a combine, act together in the matter of rates, have a common bureau for the making of rates, pay the same commissions to agents, and have a common understanding.

That the bureau should exist for the making of rates or a basic advisory rate seems wise and economical both to the companies and to the insured if so treated.

The companies consider and claim that insurance is but a tax. If so, why should the levy and collection of this tax cost the insured 50 cents upon each dollar of the tax paid, while his ordinary taxes are levied and collected for 3 cents upon each dollar?

If this work were done by the government it could be executed at not to exceed 5 to 8 cents.

This is not a pipe dream. It is verified and proved in every state where the farmers have mutual insurance companies to cover their property. The rate upon the farmer's property by the stock companies is 85 cents a year upon each $100 of insurance. The farmers in their mutual companies have been carrying this insurance for long years at an average rate of less than 25 cents. The expense of administering this insurance is but 3 cents upon each $100 of insurance carried.

The trouble has been that every legislature and most of the state governments have been dominated by veiled agents of the stock fire insurance combine. No law could be passed that did not meet its approval. This combine has assets of more than $800,000,000 and is organized as no other business in the country. Chicago is headquarters for the whole middle west, and from Chicago the paths of the combine lead to every capital of the west.

Now comes Mr. Hardison and asks more stringent laws against the man who is responsible for the fire. He does not go back far enough. He should ask for a law that will remove the inducement for incendiarism and the cause of carelessness.

What is this 90 per cent clause that the agent wants you to consider? The average agent wants just as much insurance as you will carry on your risk. He knows nothing of its value and cares less. He is looking for nothing but his 15 to 30 per cent commission. He urges you to take insurance up to at least 90 per cent of the value of your risk, and you fix the value. By taking 90 per cent instead of 50 per cent insurance you get a lower rate. This is but a well paved road to national incendiarism.

MILO D. CAMPBELL.

A GREAT ROCK IN A THIRSTY LAND.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—All hail!! In a grand historic volume, read by millions and revered by hundreds of millions, I find the simile "As the shadow of a great Rock in a thirsty land."

I mention this, Mr. Editor, because it is the exact relation in which your paper must stand in the coming days to loving mothers and anxious fathers who shall be called on to send their sons to the front by the hundreds of thousands, and notwithstanding the terrible feeling of heartsickness will consider it an honor so to do.

Just where you will come in at such times will be that they will be glad to turn to your columns for comfort and courage.

A paper that can marshal facts so clearly and set forth issues so splendidly from the standpoint of pure Americanism, at the same time exposing that most insidious form of sedition and disloyalty without being discourteous or undignified, is an asset of which no country can be too proud. It will be a source of joy to every lover of Old Glory during the conflict and a great cause for thankfulness and satisfaction after it is over. JUNIUS JR.

WHY TREPAN SOLID IVORY?

Lafayette, Ind., Aug. 4.—[Editor of the Tribune.]—I see in today's Tribune a communication from Atlantic City quoting Chicago's "Big Bill" as saying: "I don't believe in taking American boys, by conscription against their will, to fight the battles of nations across the Atlantic." Hasn't he some friend that will take him to some good surgeon that will trepan his skull, or loosen it up in some way, so that the idea can filter into his gray matter that these boys are fighting our battles, and doing it on French soil, instead of American soil? W. M. N.

MORE LIGHT, HE SAYS.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 2.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I ask you for a little light (gas) on the Peoples Gas company and Mr. Insull. About a year ago that company paid in dividends 8 per cent on its stock. Now it is paying at the rate of 4 per cent. Then it was looking for a new contract with the city. Now it has the new rate, and still the dividend is 1 per cent per quarter.

DEFENSE FEE IN TRIAL OF COAL MEN $750,000

Cost Situation Regarded as Dangerous by the Government.

BY HENRY M. HYDE.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 6.—[Special.] A lot of coal mine owners were acquitted recently in the United States court in New York on a charge of having conspired to fix the price of coal. Most of them lived in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

The other day I rode west in a Pullman smoker with three of the men who had taken part in that trial as defendants.

"Those New York lawyers know how to charge," said one of them. "Our company got a bill for $50,000."

"Our bill was for $75,000," said the second. "Did you hear what the old man said after he had figured up what all of us were taxed?"

$750,000 for Defense Fees.

"He had all the official figures. When they were added up the total was $750,000. That is what it cost us coal men to be acquitted. The old man read off the figures. 'Those damned lawyers charged us three quarters of a million,' he groaned, 'and we were charged with fixing prices!' "

"Anyway," came back the first, "the verdict must have been a terrible disappointment to certain people in Washington."

How strong was the impression made by the acquittal of the coal mine owners in New York is indicated by the fact that shortly after the jury had returned its verdict Washington was filled with gossip that Attorney General Gregory—who was responsible for the suit—was about to resign from the cabinet. Members of Mr. Peabody's coal committee were active in attempting to discover the truth of such rumors.

Situation Regarded Dangerous.

Meanwhile it is increasingly true that the coal situation all over the country—and especially in the middle west—is regarded in administration circles as dangerous. The cost of coal directly affects the cost of transportation and of every manufactured commodity. Even the steel companies whose products have jumped 100 or more per cent in a single year find a ready excuse in the enormously higher cost of coal.

From almost very city in the United States come complaints that rents have risen much faster than wages, and that landlords, generally, say the great jump in the price of coal makes it necessary for them to put a higher tax on the tenant. From some districts it is reported that the consumer can get no deliveries, even on orders for coal which were placed months ago. The suspicion grows that coal mine operators are selling their coal where they can get the most for it, paying no attention even to the so-called maximum prices fixed at the Peabody conference.

Returns to Coal Industry.

The often quoted statement of Chairman Peabody that soft coal prices in the Illinois mining district are indefensible only adds to the confusion, since he is much the largest operator in the state. So also does the attitude of C. M. Moderwell, representing Illinois on the Peabody committee.

A few months ago it was reported that Mr. Moderwell had sold out all his coal interests and would be free to devote his time to the service of the public. Now he again has become interested in the industry on a larger scale than before, and the company with which he is connected is said to have taken a leading part in blocking negotiations with the Illinois state council of defense.

The food bill, scheduled to pass congress this week, gives the president power to fix coal prices, to control the whole industry, even to taking possession of the mines, through the federal trade commission or other agency.

New Coal Board Likely.

But it now is reported that President Wilson is seriously considering the appointment of a new and separate commission on coal production, distribution, and prices, on which will be representatives of both coal mine operators and miners, neither of which has membership on the trade commission.

It is pointed out that to do the work of directing coal production and supervision and fixing prices requires special and technical knowledge. If it should be attempted by a commission without special qualifications the fear is that great confusion involving serious labor troubles would result.

Boards Meet Today to Map Out Final Exemption Work.

Members of the three district appeal boards held an informal conference at the Midday club yesterday preparatory to starting the formal sittings today in the headquarters in the Merchants Loan and Trust building, 112 West Adams street.

While no definite rulings were laid down it was the consensus of opinion that no oral appeals would be considered, but only documentary evidence coming before the boards in the routine manner.

Victor Olander, secretary of the Illinois Federation of Labor, representative of organized labor on board No. 1, said that it probably would be two or three days, or even later, before the boards got into the work, for the reason that the local boards will not have their reports in.

Local board 77 has completed its examinations and reported its findings to President Harry Pratt Judson of the First district board. These figures will be analyzed today and may furnish the basis of a preliminary investigation of the industrial needs of the community with reference to the employment feature.

I. N. G. RECRUIT WORK IS TURNED OVER TO KENNEY

Recruiting for the Illinois national guard was placed in the hands of Maj. Franklin R. Kenney, head of army recruiting forces in the Chicago district, yesterday. All the regiments received orders that the work would be in his hands from now on. Only two regiments need men, the Seventh and the Second. The major promises to have them recruited up to full strength in a short time, perhaps before they start for the south.

ORDERS EXEMPT BOARD MEMBER HERE DISMISSED

Maj. Chiperfield Requests a Man to Replace Schoening.

NAMES

An additional list of names of men who have passed the physical examination for the national army and have not claimed exemption will be found on page 12.

The summary dismissal of a member of one exemption board, the sending of a hot telegram heading off another board member who had left on a fishing trip and instructing him to report back in Chicago this morning for duty, and the laying before the federal authorities of a mass of charges of attempted draft obstruction put a little "pep" into the machinery yesterday.

Maj. B. M. Chiperfield, who started the week by "getting down to brass tacks," took these steps in an effort to speed up the machinery and practically complete the examinations of the fighting quota by next Saturday night.

Drugs Impair Vision.

"From what seems to be a reliable source comes one report that some of the men have been resorting to the use of drugs to interfere with their eyesight. It is palpable that if such subterfuges are being employed some one is behind it who knows his business," said Maj. Chiperfield.

"I also have been informed that some of the boards are displaying racial partiality in conducting the examination.

Henry Schoening was the board member that Maj. Chiperfield ordered removed at once. He sent a telegram to Adj. Gen. Dickson at Springfield notifying him that Schoening was not attending to his work in district 52 as he should and asked that another man be named in his place at once.

Schoening resides at 1904 Fletcher street in the Twenty-fourth ward in a district in which the German-Americans predominate. It is district 52.

Dr. Charles R. Moore of the Sixty-fifth district board, who went fishing up north instead of remaining on the job, either will report for duty today or he will be turned over to the federal authorities. Dr. Moore resides at 2118 Alice place.

Dr. Brushingham Gone.

The Rev. John P. Brushingham, secretary of district 4 board, also left town on the junket with the city council license committee without inquiring whether he should absent himself from the exemption work. Maj. Chiperfield, when informed that this board has practically completed its examinations and that the Rev. Mr. Brushingham will be back home the latter part of the week in time to help the other members dispose of the exemption claims, let the matter rest.

EXAMINATIONS START WITH RUSH IN THE SUBURBS

Oak Park Women Give Dinner to Men Called.

Exemption boards in Cook county outside of Chicago got going yesterday and made fast work of the examinations except in some of the districts where the registrants had long distances to travel.

The Third district board examined men from Norwood Park and environs, who had to travel between thirty and forty miles to reach the headquarters. There being no cross country line, they had to come into Chicago and then take another train north.

Many Have Tuberculosis.

An unusually large percentage of the men examined were rejected for physical disability. In this list was a proportionately large number found suffering with tuberculosis. George H. Pope is chairman of this board.

Of the 202 registrants called for examination in Evanston under the supervision of Dr. W. C. Davenport only eighty-five presented themselves, the other 117 having volunteered before the draft became effective. Of those examined fifty-two claimed exemption, most of them on the ground of dependent relatives. Twenty-five lawyers, fifteen notaries, and thirty other persons, all residents of Evanston, have volunteered to aid the board.

Twenty-seven were accepted. Nearly 2,000 men out of the 3,175 registered at that rate will have to be examined to fill the first quota, unless many of the claims for exemption are overruled.

Luncheon in Oak Park.

The Oak Park board sprang a surprise on the 131 registrants who appeared for the first day's examinations. Headed by Z. P. Hotchkiss of the Phil Sheridan post, G. A. R., and B. B. Dutton, village trustee, the men were marched to the banquet room in the Nekama building, 7235 Lake street, where a dinner was served in their honor by members of the

Of the first forty-nine men examined nine were accepted, thirteen rejected, and twenty-seven claimed exemption.

North Shore Examinations.

Glencoe, Winnetka and Kenilworth boards got going in good shape. Of the first thirty men examined in Kenilworth by Dr. Rufus Stolt, four were ejected, two because of poor sight, one because of defective molars and one was suffering with a tumor.

Of the first twenty-five men examined in district 2 at Waukegan yesterday twenty-four claimed exemption.

STATE PLANS HOME GUARDS 12,000 STRONG

Active work for 12,000 more men in uniform in Chicago was started yesterday by the state council of defense. The men are wanted for the Chicago and Cook county volunteer training corps, which the state council is organizing.

A series of meetings, beginning with one Thursday afternoon in the headquarters of the council, are being planned for the purpose of securing the men. Efforts will be made to launch a recruiting campaign in each ward of the city and town and district in the county. Men are eligible between the ages of 18 and 45 years and 21 to 64 for officers.

The armories of the national guard will be used for training the units, and they will be equipped with regulation Springfield rifles.

Applications for enlistment are being received at the headquarters of the state council and arrangements made for medical and other examinations.

The new home guard regiment to be known as the Eleventh Illinois infantry began yesterday with a nucleus of 400 men. It is expected to be recruited to full strength within a month.

JUNIOR TITLE DRAWS ENTRY OF 64 PLAYERS

BY J. G. DAVIS.

Sixty-four players are listed to start in the qualifying round of the western junior championship at the Exmoor Country club tomorrow morning. Fourteen of this number are from points outside of Chicago and as several of these are players of ability it looks as if the local men will have plenty of opposition.

Frederick J. Wright Jr. ofAlbermarle, Mass., is reported to be one of the best players in his section and R. Allen Haight of the Massapequa club of New York, was runnner-up in the eastern interscholastic championship. He is a son of Dr. A. T. Haight, formerly of Glen View. H. H. Dewey Weber of Maywood, winner of the President's consolation event in the western amateur championship, George Hartman of Marquette, and J. H. Stowell of Maywood, also are strong players.

Jim Simpson of Terre Haute, the present titleholder, is now in the aviation service, and also is over the age limit of 20.

PING BODIE.

Exhaust Echoes By John De Long

THE Lincoln Highway association has received the résumé of a bill which, if passed, would make the highway a national postroad from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The bill was introduced in the house of representatives by Congressman Brodbeck of Pennsylvania and has been referred to the committee on postoffices and postroads.

The passage of Congressman Brodbeck's measure would make possible the immediate improvement of the Lincoln highway from coast to coast, a point which recommends it highly in the light of possible military needs. Such a legislative enactment on the part of the federal government would also bring to an end the long struggle which has been waged by Eugene W. Weiser of York, Pa., to free the Lincoln highway in Pennsylvania of toll charges to touring motorists.

An unconfirmed rumor, but one which is given general credence in Chicago, has it that Ralph De Palma will take up work for the government testing airplane motors. Such a move by the popular racing driver would cause no surprise, in view of the fact that J. G. Vincent, vice president of the engineering department of the Packard Motor Car company, is temporarily engaged in the government aviation corps as a consulting engineer. De Palma is especially fitted for testing work, having had much to do with the development of the Packard aeroplane motor, one of which is used in his new twin six racing car.

The Chicago Motor club sounds a warning regarding speed traps that are set at various points about the city and its environs. Motorcycle policemen in large numbers are being placed on duty by various towns and villages. These include Dalton, Steger, South Chicago, Chicago Heights, Riverside, Bellwood, Locust Grove, Hillside, Elmwood Park, Chesterton, and Forest Park.

The motorcycle cops abound in Milwaukee avenue and along other thoroughfares that carry heavy automobile traffic. The Lincoln park commissioners have taken control of Sheridan road through the villages of Wilmette, Winnetka, New Trier, Kenilworth, and Glencoe, and are making life miserable for speeders.

All the north shore from the city limits to Fort Sheridan is being patrolled and arrests are being made in unprecedented numbers. In many instances motorists are being hauled into court charged with driving at a speed as low as twentymiles an hour.

Years of test and selection preceded the introduction of this distinctive blend, which satisfies the cultivated taste. Long Havana Filler, handmade.

Woods and Waters By Larry St. John

CHICAGO.—[To the Editor.]—Well, here's your "crab contributor" again who rises to make a few remarks on several things that have been mentioned before.

Firstly, as the law sharks say, why all the noise one Larry St. John is making about a hatchery in Chicago? Just as we told you there's not a chance. Gov. Lowden has vetoed the $25,000 appropriation for the Chicago hatchery. Instead of a hatchery he is going to give the "peepul" of the geelorious state of Illinois (otherwise known as the Sucker state) an investigation on the conservation of our resources.

We suppose the governor is making this investigation on the advice of his new chief game warden, whose previous experience in such matters consisted of being a small town druggist. Don't be surprised. The fish and game department of Illinois is under the jurisdiction of the agriculture department. Of course, anybody can see that a horse doctor or an expert on feeding nannie goats knows all about fish and game. We have a roughneck driving one of the teams over at our factory and we are going to have him appointed state bacteriologist or something.

Do you know that the new fish and game department has fired the state hatchery superintendent and the state fish culturist and that the governor has vetoed appropriations for paying their successors? From this we gather that we not only lose the Chicago hatchery, but the hatcheries we now have will be discontinued. Our looker may be out of whack, but it looks to us as if we were going from rotten to rottener. Sucker state is right. Yours truly,

W. W. WOODS.

[Editor's Note.—Our amiable contributor, we suspect, is somewhat of an extremist. Personally, we are inclined to give the agriculture department a chance to demonstrate whether they can do better than our former $10,000 a year commissions. Neither can we see why a small town druggist who has spent his days off in the field cannot make a good fish and game warden. Furthermore, we do not believe that the new administration intends to discontinue our hatcheries, in which the state has an investment of nearly $37,000.]

VISITORS STAR IN FIRST GAMES OF ROQUE MEET

Lose Only Two Matches in Western Tourney at the Lincoln Park Courts.

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.

Out of town roque players came out on top in all matches except two in which they met Chicagoans in the first day's play of the Western Roque association championships at Lincoln park. Round robin contests were begun in three divisions, with thirty-seven entrants registered for the tourney. In order to speed the contests it was found necessary to impose a time limit of an hour and a half on each match, instead of playing out the maximum of 32 points.

J. D. Kramer of West Alexandria, O., performed the feat of running out his 32 in a straight run. He defeated A. N. Clemmer, a clubmate, 32 to 1. Clemmer got his only point after Kramer had made a complete run of 16 arches with his first ball, and before his turn came to complete the run with the second ball.

Kramer vs. King for Medal.

Kramer's matches were closely followed by the enthusiasts, as he is challenger for the diamond medal now held by C. C. King of Chicago, and their match of seven games tomorrow and Thursday nights is expected to be the feature of the tournament.

In the third division O. D. Barnhart of Decatur, Ill., captured matches from three opponents, each by a goodly margin.

Summary of Play.

First division—J. D. Kramer, West Alexandria, O., defeated A. N. Clemmer, West Alexandria, O., 32—1; A. N. Clemmer defeated M. McPhail, Garfield park, Chicago, 23—12; M. McPhail defeated J. W. Gill, Lincoln park, Chicago, 24—10; A. N. Clemmer defeated W. S. Kilmer, Lincoln park, 23—16; J. D. Kramer defeated F. C. Jones, Lincoln park, 21—12.

SOLDIER BOYS TO STAGE MEET

The Second Illinois Field artillery will celebrate the coming Saturday half holiday with a track and field meet at Lake Shore playgrounds, opposite the Streeterville quarters of the regiment. Six batteries, A-F, will compete for the team prize, the events being: One-hundred yard dash, 220 yard dash, high jump, broad jump, six men tug of war, and six men relay race. Gold, silver and bronze medals have been put up by Lincoln park commissioners, who tendered the use of the track for the meet. Manager George Speiser of the playground is coaching the soldier athletes and arranging the meet.

WOMEN'S EVENTS TO BE FEATURE OF TITLE SHOOT

Fair Devotees of Traps to Have an Inning During Grand American Meet.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Although competition between men in the Grand American handicap at the South Shore Country club, Aug. 20 to 24, inclusive, will attract most attention from the gallery, the contests for women will present a novel feature.

One of the best known local woman shots is Mrs. A. H. Winkler. She can break ninety or better out of 100 from the sixteen yard rise, and when placed further back in a distance handicap she generally manages to give a good account of herself. Her husband is one of the best local shots.

Mrs. L. M. Fetherston is another ardent supporter of the game. Mrs. J. R. May, Mrs. Harold Almert, Dr. [illegible] Pittcock, Mrs. Harvey Otter, and Mrs. W. A. Davis are others who break the clay birds.

The women will have a separate trap for their competition, as will the professionals, who are barred from all the regular amateur events.

AT THE BILLIARD ROOMS.

In the three cushion tournament at Foley's Daly defeated De Lorme [25], 35 to 19. Davison and Barnes tonight.

At Sutton's room, Sampson [35] defeated Claybert [28], 35 to 20. Naskrent and Reifert tonight.

Charley Le Gros, president of the Chicago Billiard league, has just returned from a fishing trip to Wisconsin. Charley missed on a license one day and it cost him the price of an inlaid billiard cue.

Bevo
A BEVERAGE

Watch!!!

For some years, various and sundry concerns have been making beverages which are grouped under the general description of "near-beer."

Then came Bevo—a cereal beverage, not a "near-beer," but offered purely for what it is—a delightful, wholesome and nutritious drink. Bevo met with instant and complete success. A whirlwind success.

Owing to Bevo's popularity, some beverages are now being offered in a way to make the appearance of the package look as much like the Bevo bottle as possible. The intention is obvious. But you don't taste the shape of a bottle—it's the flavor of the contents of the bottle that you must depend upon for enjoyment.

Then beware of impersonators—don't be satisfied to try to identify Bevo by the shape of the bottle alone—

Look !!

There are these certain identification marks that are your protection against imitations. Not just imitations of the product, remember—but those more insinuating imitations which try to deceive you by putting an old failure into a bottle similar to a new success. So look for these unmistakable marks of the genuine Bevo—demand that the bottle be opened in front of you, then—

Look for the Seal

See that it is unbroken covering the Crown Top

Bevo—
the all-year-'round soft drink

Listen!

Bevo is a pure drink. This means more than that it contains pure ingredients—it means that though you might often well be afraid of possible germs in milk or water, Bevo, being a pasteurized product in sterilized bottles, is absolutely free from bacteria.

Bevo is a nutritive beverage—the fine cereals from which it is made give it this quality.

Bevo is a delightful and refreshing soft drink—unlike any you have ever tasted—indeed a Triumph in Soft Drinks.

You will find Bevo at inns, cafeterias, restaurants, groceries, department and drug stores, soda fountains, dining cars, steamships, canteens, soldiers' homes, navy, and other places where refreshing beverages are sold. Your grocer will supply you by the case. Bevo is sold in bottles only—and is bottled exclusively by

WE'D HAVE WON IF PING BODIE WERE WITH US

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Wallie Schang broke up a wild and woolly ball game, broke the Macks' losing streak, smashed things up in general, and caused consternation in the ranks of the White Sox. Coming up in the eleventh inning, with Stuffy McInnis, who had singled, serenely loitering around first, Li Hung Schang whanged the pill to deep center, the elusive leather taking a bound over Felsh's dome for a triple. McInnis scored, winning the game, 5 to 4. Home run drives into the bleachers by Felsch and Bodie were outstanding features.

Noyes Wild, but Escapes.

Noyes was as wild as a hawk in the first inning, issuing three passes, but bad work by the Sox helped him out of a deep hole. Felsch, first man up in the second, strolled. Gandil laid down a bunt for a sacrifice. When Bates threw out Risberg, Hap took a big lead off third, and on McInnis' heave to Bates scored with the tying run.

Dugan reached first in the fifth on E. Collins' fumble, advanced on Noyes' bunt, and scored when Risberg foozled Bodie's bounder. Noyes and Russell went along with their pitching duel up to the sixth, when Happy Felsch came into the glimmer with his home run smash. Liebold started with a single to left and Weaver sacrificed. Bates threw out E. Collins and Jackson strolled on four wide ones. Felsch slammed a fast one into the bleachers in left, scoring three runs.

Ding You, Ping Bodie!

Bodie, who is a hero in Philadelphia, made himself solid with his friends for the day when he repeated Hap's trick, but there was one man, not two, on the paths this time. Grover led with a double in the eighth, and then Ping ponged the pill into the bleachers, scoring two runs and tying the game in a knot. The bugs gave Ping quite a hand.

Strunk and McInnis followed with hits, and it looked as if the Macks were going to cinch the fracas right there. A swell heave by Liebold got Strunk at the plate and prolonged the game. When Risberg fumbled Schang's bounder Rowland shifted pitchers, Scott going to the slab. Score:

Notes of the Sox

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Bates, who got back into the game for Mack, played fine ball. His play on Schalk in the fifth was a brilliant bit of fielding.

A fan near the press box was much peeved at Manager Mack for sending Witt to bat for Dugan.

Happy Felsch robbed Bodie of a hit in the tenth when he ran back for Ping's long drive. Bodie was sorry there was a short centerfield fence.

Risberg had a bad day in the field, but was lucky at that. His boot in the eighth happened after Bodie had cleaned the bases of runners.

TENER OPPOSES TRIP TO FRANCE

New York, Aug. 6.—"The proposal to send baseball players to France at the end of the season to entertain soldiers is the most absurd thing I ever heard of."

This is the way President John K. Tener of the National league felt about it today when told an offer had been made to finance such an expedition.

"The idea of sending a bunch of big huskies over there with their expenses all paid to perform for the benefit of men who are ready to sacrifice their lives for the country is exceedingly repugnant to me. I cannot understand what the man who made the offer could have been thinking of."

Chicago Typos to Play St. Louis Team Today

Chicago and St. Louis typos will play today, tomorrow, and Thursday at White Sox park, the proceeds of the games to be given to the fund to furnish baseball equipment for the American soldiers in France. The local printers are the present holders of the Garry Herrmann cup, having won the championship of the Union Printers' National league at Indianapolis last year. Joe Hecker of the City league will umpire the series. Games will be called at 2:30.

BLUNDERS BY CUBS IN THIRD ENABLE PHILS TO WIN, 3-2

For the final game between Cubs and Phillies today Shuffling Phil Douglas will be opposed by Grover Cleveland Alexander, the respective managers announced last night. Douglas defeated Aleck 2 to 0 in the opening game. President Weeghman told Douglas that if he defeat Alexander again today he would receive a bonus of $100 after the game.

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Claude Hendrix should have licked the fighting Phillies in the fourth combat of the series against the Cubs, but Claude's mates bunched two of their three blunders in one inning and handed two unearned runs to Moran's men. The result was the Phillies won the battle, 3 to 2, and now are even up on the series, with the odd game to be played today.

Hendrix was in fine fettle. He gave the Phils only five blows, using plenty of Kansas slippery elm juice to prevent others, and outside of that one inning when the Cubs bunched their errors, Claude never had anything to fear. In fact, he was given sparkling support at all other times.

Kilduff a Batting Hero.

Opposed to Hendrix was Joe Oeschger, a regular American citizen in spite of the name. Joe held the Cubs to a half dozen scattered blows and might never have been scored upon if it hadn't been for our new kid shortstop, Pete Kilduff.

The boy infielder nicked one of Joe's curves in the second inning for a triple that drove in one run, and chopped out another hit, a single, in the seventh which helped in the production of the second run. The kid shortstopper came up again in the ninth after two were out and one run was needed to tie and he worked Oeschger for a pass to first, then stole second, and was ready to speed home with the tying run on anything, but the best Pickles Dillhoefer could do was to drive Gavvy Cravath back to the brick wall after a long fly ball which ended the game.

Cubs Get Flying Start.

The way things began it looked as if the Cubs would tear things up. In the second round, after one was dead, Cy Williams hammered out a single and then legged it home when Kilduff poled a triple down the right foul line after Deal had fanned. The fireworks was cut short, however, and in the third the Cubs cracked and gave the Phils two.

One was out when Adams singled. Oeschger bounded a ridiculously easy one to Doyle, who had a possible double play in sight, but fumbled. Paskert followed with a bounder to Kilduff, and again a possible double play was in sight, but the boy shortstop fumbled in his eagerness. This filled the bases with a lot of fellows who should have been sitting on the bench, and Adams and Oeschger sprinted home when Bancroft followed with a single to right field.

Phils Win in Seventh.

In the seventh the Phils earned a run when Cravath singled and scored on Luderus' double, but Claude stopped further stampeding right there, and in the last half the Cubs got a run when with two out Deal reached first on Stock's error, advanced on Kilduff's safe blow, and scored when Dillhoefer poled a single to center. No further damage was done, for Oeschger caused Hendrix to die on a long fly.

Notes of the Cubs

The final game of the Cubs-Phils series will be played today and the winner will capture the odd game.

One of the spectators was Jake Stahl, former Red Sox leader and Illinois tackle. Jake has been so busy in the banking business this was the first time this season he had a chance to attend a Cub game.

Art Wilson had his nose broken in the third inning when he turned his profile toward third base when Peeve Paskert was trying to score from third on a fly ball to Wolter. Wolter's peg was a beaut and Art got his man, but Peeve's elbow or something crashed against Art's beak and crushed it. Art will be laid up for several days, but Doc Pitts may install a temporary drainage and air supply system which will permit Art to work before the regular pipes are healed.

IN THE WAKE OF THE NEWS
by RING W. LARDNER

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington, Aug. 3.—Delayed.]—There being no other busines before the Senate save trifling legislation pertaining to some unimportant war we are said to be engaged in with Germany, it was decided to dispose of a bill having to do with the preservation of certain migratory birds. The Canadian government, it seems, opined that these birds ought not to be shot and suggested to our government that both Canada and the U. S. act to that effect.

The preliminary red tape had been disposed of and all that remained was for the senate to take its final vote, provided there was no objection.

Senator Reed of Missouri objected.

"We have no evidence here that the Canadian government has acted," said he. "The Canadian government proposed this legislation and now you are trying to make us pass it before we know whether or not Canada has done anything about it."

The sponsor for the U. S. end of the bill arose and said he had read in a Canadian newspaper that parliament had already passed the law.

"Yes," said Senator Reed, "but we have not been officially notified. There is not one senator here who can get up and guarantee that Canada has acted."

[He said this often.]

"If you gentlemen keep on doing business this way," said Senator Reed, "the time will come when you and this country will regret it. e have no evidence that the Canadian government has acted on this law."

[He said this seven times.]

Senator Lodge, who looked strangely out of place, arose and spoke to this effect:

"What of it?"

"There is not one senator here," said Senator Reed, "who can authoritatively state that Canada has acted."

The senator from Missouri gained emphasis by repetition of this remarkable assertion to the number of four or five times. And he moved that the bill be tabled, or whatever it is you do with them.

"We have not been officially notified that Canada hasacted," he said.

It may have occurred to some that even if Canada hadn't acted, Canadians who can shoot straight are aiming at only one kind of migratory bird—the Boche.

When Senator Reed began his hair-raising speech, four-fifths of the statesmen present had gone out to smoke. But they were back in time to vote on his motion. The vote was forty-three Noes to six Ayes. Elapsed time: One hour and fifty minutes.

"Well," said Senator Reed, "I have done my duty. And this Senate will see the day when it regrets just such hasty action as this. We have no official evidence that Canada has acted."

Your correspondent missed the rest of the session, which was probably devoted to discussion of a bill provided for a fair distribution of burnt matches.

Niesen of Garden Citys a Candidate for Sheriff

Billy Niesen, secretary of the Chicago league and manager of the Garden Citys, announced he is a candidate for sheriff and that a number of booster clubs have been formed to aid him in his candidacy. Niesen at present is in the employ of the government. He claims the backing of ex-Gov. Dunne.

CUBS' $15,000 FIND AND DAVE DANFORTH EXAMINED FOR DRAFT

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Outfielder Turney Barber, just sold by Jack Dunn of Baltimore to the Chicago Cubs for $15,000, and Pitcher Dave Danforth of the White Sox were before the draft board in the Ninth district of Baltimore city today. Both were examined, but their physical standing has not yet been announced.

Barber's papers are withheld pending permission from his home district, Jackson, Tenn., whether his examination here shall stand. Unless this permission is granted Barber's examination here will be void and he will have to return to his home town for examination.

Immediately after undergoing examination the new Cub played great ball in the game with Rochester, making four hits and three runs.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Because the "gate" was less than $23 the Braves-Pirate game this afternoon was called off. No rain fell until two hours after starting time and the umpires were at a loss for an excuse for calling off the game.

Only Hit Off Foster, Two Bagger, Wins 2 to 0 Slab Battle.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 6.—Cleveland shut out Boston, 2 to 0, although Foster, for Boston, allowed only one hit. Two bases on balls and a two bagger by Harris in the first inning accounted for the two runs. In the ninth Klepfer was hit hard. With the bases full and one out, Bagby was rushed to the slab, and struck out the next two men. Speaker's fielding was sensational. Score:

State Food Service.

THE agricultural colleges of every state in the union began to teach farmers about calories for cattle twenty-five years ago. I have a book of 1880 in which the talk about the feeding of cattle is exactly the same as that which is being promulgated today about the feeding of people. It reports experiments which had been going on for twenty-five years in Germany, experiments on the feeding of cattle, showing food equivalents, with prices, something similar to the exhibits made by our food conservation committees today.

And the old writer says: "In the light of modern experimental science the maintenance of the animal and the production of meat, heat, and force are not matters of so much hay, grain, and roots, but of the gluten, sugar, starch, fat, and so on, of which these are composed."

The agricultural colleges have these many years taught how to feed animals and they are now prepared or are teaching how to feed men. They offer free service of many valuable kinds. They have these many years taught how to grow and preserve food for animals—they have even canned the corn stalks in a silo—and now they will teach any who apply how to grow and preserve foods for human beings.

More than this, some of them are teaching human beings how to preserve themselves in health through right eating. They will tell you that even if you lie in bed all day you will require about 1,600 calories of food and how many calories in addition you will need for different sorts of work. Besides telling you about food, as caloric or energy service, they will tell you of the other services foods render which have nothing to do with their caloric value, but are equally important.

The old writer stated this very simply when he talked about the cow. He said: "Suppose that I have in my stable a cow, standing idle and giving no milk. She will require only food enough to supply the wastes resulting from the changes that are continually taking place in her internal organism, from the continual building over and renewal of all parts of her body.

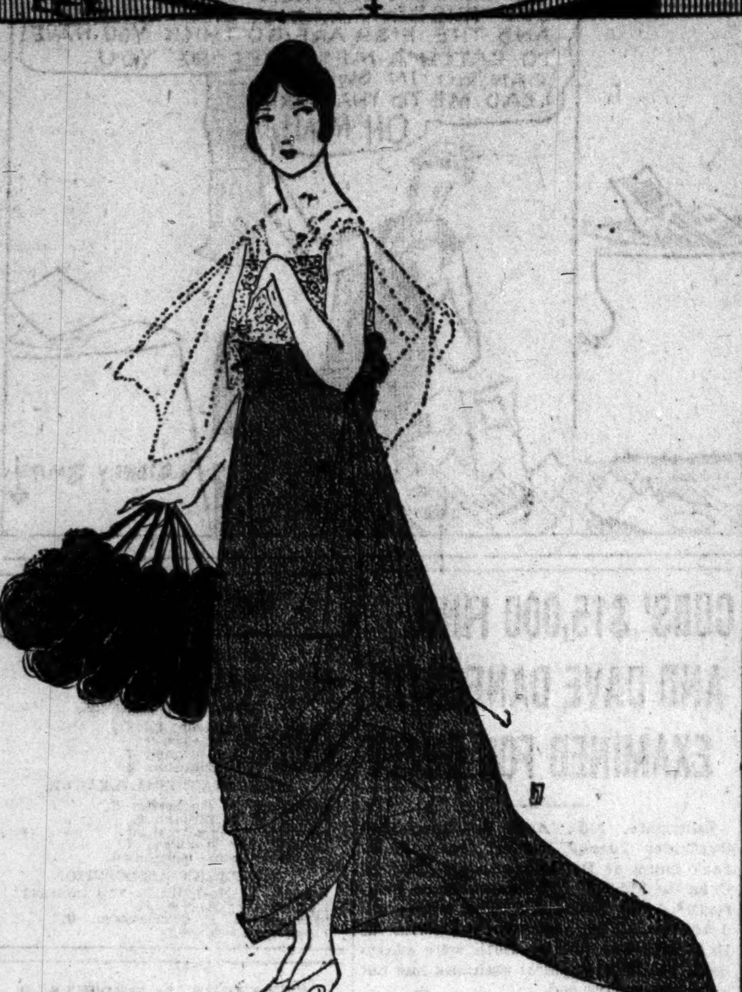
"A certain amount of food of a certain quality is necessary, then, to maintain her in good 'store' condition. This she will need to 'hold her own' when nothing else is required of her. But suppose I demand of my cow production, say in the form of milk. For this purpose she will need more food. And, as everybody knows, the cow should have for the production of milk not only a larger quantity but also different quality of food from that which is needed for maintenance alone.

"If, instead of milking my cow, I wish to fat her for the butcher, I shall also require production, but of still another sort, of fat and flesh. And if, instead of a cow, I have an ox that is kept at work, yet another kind of production is required, muscular force. And I need not say that for these different kinds of production different kinds and amounts of fodder are requisite."

Now, is it not a queer thing, that men could consider and study fodder from all these different standpoints, when the thing fed was equivalent to money in their pockets, and not consider at all the foods that sent so many of their relatives to early graves?

The food tables on cow fodders had just the same scientific words at the head of each column of percentages fifty years ago that tables of human foods have today, with the addition of one representing money returns.

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK



BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—There is a certain psychological effect of August upon the average woman—something that makes her rush out on the world and cry: "I must have some new clothes or I'll go to pieces." The fact of it is that just about this time all the pretty things we bought for ourselves in April and May look dilapidated. They bring no light of joy to the eye, no quickening of spirit to the tired mind. We're so used to them that we ache. If we didn't feel it would be absolutely wicked we'd bundle them all together and then some dark night stealthily throw them down the elevator shaft.

And all that, of course, is the sense of the midseason styles. That is why in August we scrape together what we can and go out to buy us a few new "pretties."

Among the midseason evening dresses here is one from a famous specialty shop which will do much to revive the spirit. Flame colored satin is draped—almost wound, we might say—about the figure so as to form a skirt which comes up above the natural waist line and is overlapped by a bolerolike bodice of silver lace. Flesh colored maline drifting mistily over the shoulders into scarflike sleeves combines with one great big gorgeous poppy of deep red velvet to make this frock lovely not only in design but in color.

The Successful Home Garden

BY J. F. H. HEIDE.

Article 153.

Look Out for Late Potato Blight.

The news reaches us that blight has struck many of the potato patches of this vicinity. Presumably the friends of our garden column profited by our article of March 20 (No. 17). It was there explained that all potatoes must be sprayed with Bordeaux mixture when about eight inches high, just before the first hilling, and again two weeks later. That was for early blight.

Now comes the danger of late blight which kills the tops and causes the young potatoes to rot in the ground. It starts from diseased seed and soon spreads. Brown spots develop on the leaves and a whitish mildew appears on their underside. Sultry weather, such as that of July 25 and 26, is very favorable for it, while dry, hot weather, such as we have had since then, tends to check it.

Whether the plants show the development of the infection or not, if outside the first two zones (see map of March 5, reprinted April 16), better "play safe" and spray (not sprinkle) at once with Bordeaux mixture. In small quantities, it is best bought ready mixed in cans, which must be diluted with water according to directions accompanying it. In field practice, the mixture may be made according to the formula given in the article of March 20.

POTATO BEETLES.

If there are potato beetles present, combine paris green with it at the rate of one ounce to twenty-five quarts of the diluted Bordeaux mixture. This is about one-third stronger than the same poison is used for other purposes.

The beetle is about one-half inch long, with ten yellow stripes on the back. It deposits its vermilion eggs on the underside of the leaves. For security, the beetles should be hand picked while the spray, from above and below, will dispose of the rest if repeated every ten days.

This department appears daily and Sunday in "The Tribune." Inquiries regarding the home garden should give its location and inclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope, as column space seldom permits an answer. No names will be published. Address The Garden Editor.

PLANT LICE ON POTATOES.

If the plants are infested with aphids or plant lice, "Black Leaf 40" may also be included in the Bordeaux mixture spray, thus making one operation of the three.

Within the first two zones, the wilting of the leaves is probably due to the causes explained yesterday. In that event the sprays will have no effect. Yet, the conditions there are more favorable for plant lice, and the spraying of all parts of the plants with "Black Leaf 40" or other form of tobacco extract may be called for.

"ONE LAW FOR BOTH"
Produced by Owl.
Directed by Ivan Abramson
Presented at the Ziegfeld

The cast:

Elga Pulaski	Rita Jolivet
Helen Hutchinson	Leah Baird
Renee Doucet	Margaret Greene
Magna Strunski	Helen Arnold
Ossip Pulaski	James Morrison
Norman Hutchinson	Vincent Serrano
Count de Fernac	Pedro de Cordoba
Baron Jan Slasch	Paul Capellani
Sergious Gourko	Anders Randolf
Feodor Wolski	Hassan Mussali
Henri	Walter Gould

BY MABEL M'ELLIOTT.

AS you may have guessed, "One Law for Both" sets forth the question: Why should not man, as well as woman, forgive? To which we reply—why, indeed!

The picture is of tragic substance, concerning as it does the life and loves of Elga Pulaski, Russian revolutionist, played by Rita Jolivet. James Morrison is almost unrecognizable as the hectic Ossip, and Leah Baird handles the rôle of Helen Hutchinson, a woman of shattered illusions, with a sort of weary loveliness. She has a new restraint that is most becoming. Pedro de Cordoba does a sincere bit of work as the Count de Fernac, and Victor Serrano is convincingly natural as the American. It is, as one surveys it, a notable cast.

As to the plot—behold the Russia that picture audiences know—a land of Cossacks, fierce officials, snowy wastes; the little band of revolutionists, their betrayal, Elga's sacrifice to free them, and her flight to America for sanctuary. There she meets and marries Norman Hutchinson, without telling him of her past (these pasts we have always with us!) and hence is the solemn question propounded—SHOULD he forgive? He does.

In some parts the subtitles sound almost like liberal translations, as for instance the one about the New York gambler and his "lady friend." And I shall never cease to marvel at the colossal stupidity of brother and sister, who, wishing to conceal their relationship from the latter's husband, embrace in the most conspicuous spot the garden affords.

It is with full realization of my iconoclasm, recognizing the personnel of the cast, that I remark in passing:

Real Love Stories

"The Tribune" will pay $5 for every real love story published. If you know one, submit it, and write no more than 300 words. Address Doris Blake, "The Tribune," Chicago. No manuscripts returned. If you have a perplexing love affair upon which you need the counsel of a friend, write Doris Blake. Send stamped, addressed envelope if you wish personal reply.

The Unsent Letter.

THERE are undoubtedly many cases of a quarreling young couple's being started on the road to happiness and wedding bells and home made biscuits by a letter addressed to Doris Blake. But I know of only one instance where a couple was reconciled by a letter address to Doris Blake, but not sent.

The bane in the boy in the case's life was the girl in the case's jealousy. It was a most unreasonable jealousy—a jealousy that asserted itself whenever she thought her Harry had given another girl a second glance.

It wasn't long before it got on poor Harry's nerves. He pleaded with her and he told her the old familiar story—that she was the one and only girl in his life—the only girl he had ever loved or would ever think of loving.

But still the green eyed monster thrived within her. And when, on a shopping tour, she suddenly dropped in on Harry, and, looking over his shoulder, saw him addressing a letter to a "Miss," she became very much fired with suspicion—and he became very much fired with downright anger.

He threw down the letter he had written and, in a huff of supreme scorn and disgust, he left her to herself—and the letter. Of course, she wasn't curious—but she read the note, nevertheless. It was addressed to Miss Doris Blake, and it told that woman of the perplexing love affair of a perplexed young man—of a man whose light o' love, his only love, was incorrigibly obsessed with the demon of jealousy. What should he do?

The letter told the girl three things: It told her, more forcibly since it hadn't been meant for her, that Harry loved her as he loved no one else; secondly, that she was a foolishly jealous little girl, and, thirdly, that her foolish jealousy would mean the loss of a delightfully charming Harry if she didn't reform.

The letter never reached its destination. The girl reformed and happiness was attained, and wedding bells were rung and home made biscuits were baked.

Girl Champions of Golf Are Feted at Cleveland Club

WORD comes from Cleveland, O., of a round of social activities there for Miss Elaine Rosenthal of Chicago and Miss Alexa Stirling, the two golf champions, who recently played in the benefit foursome at Onwentsia in Lake Forest for the Navy league. The two young girls played on Sunday in a war benefit foursome at the Mayfield Country club at Cleveland and are the house guests of Mrs. Robert H. Crowell. Miss Stirling made many friends while in Chicago at the parties which were given for her and there seems to be just as crowded a social calendar for the girls at the eastern city as there was here at the time of the tournament.

◆

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hutchins Jr. are in Camden, Me., the guests of Mrs. Hutchins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Keep, who have a cottage there. They expect to remain away the rest of the summer.

◆

Announcement was made yesterday that at the benefit garden party given on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Carr of Highland Park the amount taken in for the Great Lakes auxiliary of the Naval Relief society was $1,050.

◆

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Revell of 969 Lincoln parkway and their sons, Alexander and Richardson, are touring in New England and will spend two or three weeks at Bretton Woods, N. H.

◆

Miss Esther Tryon, who will be married on Aug. 22 to Floyd Hassler, will be the guest of honor at a bridge party to be given by Mrs. Albert P. Dippold.

Miss Marie Buhmann of 438 Diversey parkway has returned from a month's visit in Cedar Rapids, Ia.

The Calumet Country club has offered the use of its grounds to members of the Kenwood club for Thursday, Aug. 16. Women of the guest club are invited to attend and there will be facilities furnished for card playing.

Miss Elizabeth McCormick of 660 Rush street, who has been in charge of a little sample shop for the sale of Italian embroideries and handwork for the benefit of the Italian women who do the work, will close her shop today for the summer and will go east to be with her family, who are at Mizzentop, their summer cottage at Bar Harbor, Me. Mrs. R. Hall McCormick and Miss Mildred McCormick already are there.

Mrs. C. J. Sheridan will be hostess this afternoon at the regular weekly card party to be given at the Chicago College club to increase the war relief fund of the club.

There will be a dinner dance this evening at the South Shore Country club, with dancing on the outdoor platform.

MARRIAGES

Much interest attaches to the marriage in New York on Thursday of Miss Mildred Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Jay Hamilton, to Edson Morris Finney. Both the young people are well known in Chicago, having lived in Hyde Park. The groom is the son of Hanford E. Finney of Buenos Aires, Argentina, and his sisters, Do[illegible] and Nancy, have come from South America to act as bridesmaids. Two of the groomsmen are also from Buenos Aires. After the ceremony, which will be performed in St. Bartholomew's church, there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 300 Central Park West. The couple will sail from New York on Saturday for Buenos Aires.

Announcement is made of the wedding of Miss Marie Foley, daughter of Mrs. William Foley of 1424 Berwyn avenue, to Dr. Philip J. Bedessem, who is a first lieutenant in the medical corps. The ceremony was performed on Saturday evening at St. Ita's church, after which there was a dinner at the Edgewater Beach hotel for the bridal party and members of the families.

Auto Transports for Red Cross

As a part of the organization which the Red Cross is building for relief work in France a fleet of motor transports is being formed at the request of Maj. Grayson M. P. Murphy, who is in charge of Red Cross work in France.

The first unit of trucks is now being forwarded. It is hoped eventually to organize such an efficient and thoroughly equipped transport service that the Red Cross supplies may be carried without delay to any point, without placing any additional burden upon the already overtaxed railroads of France.

The unit now being forwarded will be completely equipped and manned—ready for instant service. Fifty experienced men, including drivers, mechanics, bodybuilders, painters, and other automobile craftsmen, will make up the personnel. Practically all of these men will receive special training in their respective fields and will be given sufficient military instruction to meet the requirements of service with the fighting forces.

The work is being executed under the personal supervision of an experienced railroad chief, who is giving his entire time to the Red Cross in helping to solve the tremendous problems of transportation.

ENGAGEMENTS

The date of the Hamilton club annual picnic has been changed from Aug. 8 to Aug. 25, and the place has been changed from the Great Lakes Naval Training station to Col. George Fabyan's country estate—Riverbank—near Geneva, Ill. Arrangements are being made for a special train. There will be many games, baseball, swimming, dancing, etc., with prizes for the winners.

MUSIC AT RAVINIA

NO blood was let and no hearts were broken at Ravinia Saturday night, because, to vary the troubled proceedings which transpire there to music each evening, "The Barber of Seville" was presented. This airy bit of rough-house was gvien by Miss Macbeth, Mr. Giordano, Mr. Picco, Mr. Scott, Mr. Daddi, and others, whose amiable capers evoked the loud laugh that is relished by the best of music lovers—of whom there were present approximately 5,000.

◆

The old musical farce, reeking with popular humor, seemed really to be a hit. Many times since it was written, a hundred years ago, has one comedian lathered another with comic soaps, and many times will he do so again. One of the largest fortunes in vaudeville was made by the extravagant use of lather. "The Barber of Seville" is full of these classic tricks which renew themselves each season in the loop theaters; and only a few of us, it seems, have ceased to smile (for instance) when one clown jumps upon another's feet, causing the victim to hop about the stage with poignant grimaces.

◆

In the intervals between farce and recitative, Rossini's lacy, mischievous music was sung faultlessly. Sung and played, too, for Mr. Papi conducted the Chicago orchestra with great spirit and with evident enjoyment. They applaud Mr. Papi at Ravinia, when he traverses the musicians' pit, even more than they do Mr. Campanini at the Auditorium. Miss Macbeth was a delectable Rosina, singing the brilliant "A voice has made my heart resound" with fine effect.

◆

Sunday evening to another 5,000 "La Boheme" was presented. You have probably heard it several times not nearly so well done at $5 the seat, for Miss Mason as Mimi had everything that a prima donna should have, including a strong death bed voice. Her utterance of the unctuous Puccini melodies was impeccant, and her impersonation was likewise. Mr. Kingston, in English, sang Rudolph, and Miss Pavloska appeared as Musette, the rôle in which she made her debut with the Chicgao Opera company a year or two ago.

◆

New Plays for Smith-Golden.

"Early to Bed," by Frank Craven and with Ralph Morgan; "Poor Butterflies," a "society" comedy by Salisbury Field (Mr. Golden wrote the words to "Poor Butterfly"); "A Wonderful Gift," by Salisbury Field; "You'd Never Believe It," by Mr. Smith and Frank Bacon; "The Tow Path," by Chester V. De Vonde; "The Scourge," by George Broadhurst and Octavus Roy Cohan; "The Picnic," by Austin Strong and Langdon Mitchell; and "Toby's Bow," by John Taintor Foote.

Care for Families.

What is to be done for the families of soldiers called away to fight. Miss Harriet Vittum, director of the woman's committee, commenting on that situation, said yesterday: "I am sure that any one who viewed the parade of drafted men on Saturday will feel as I do; that Chicago will not let the families of any of those men suffer during the absence of the bread winner. In Washington now they are about to pass a measure which will insure to the family of any soldier a certain percentage of his earnings. In addition to this the war relief department of the Red Cross has taken care of hundreds of cases of this kind. The men who fight for us must be assured that their families will not suffer any more than is absolutely necessary during their absence." The Red Cross War Relief department is in room 822, 112 West Adams street.

Chicagoan Weds in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—Miss Helen Marie Mackenzie of this city and George C. Philip of Chicago were married here today at Sts. Peter and Paul's cathedral. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Philip of Chicago.

Registrars, and More Registrars, are Called For RECRUITING for registrars for the woman's committee is still going merrily on, although the registration department, formerly located at 60 East Madison street, is temporarily without a home, and in consequence there has been much tearing of the hair over files and note books and things locked up in storage.

"We simply must have two or three thousand trained registrars before Sept. 17," said Mrs. Roy Dickey of the registration committee. "We really need every registrar we can get. There are 306,000 registered women voters in Chicago, and in addition to that number we are registering girls from 16 to 21 years old and foreign women—altogether about a million women in Chicago to be registered for war service."

◆

The Daughters of the British Empire, the Women's Church Federation, the Women's Relief Organizations and other groups of women have volunteered to register their members and are sending registrars to be trained in the work by Mrs. Dickey. There are classes in registration almost every day at 120 West Adams street. Registration will begin by wards Sept. 17.

A dispensary in France to take care of the women and children coming out of the devastated district will soon be an accomplished fact if every one is as prompt as Mrs. H. M. Galloway, Mrs. Mark Kimball, and William O. Goodman were in response to the cable received at the French shop yesterday. Mrs. Benjamin Lathrop, who has charge of the American fund for French wounded, cabled from France: "Found ideal place for infirmary and nurse. Women and children are pouring out in distressing condition from villages bombarded in recent advance. Money would be a godsend for immediate needs." William Goodman gave $250 at once, Mrs. Galloway $100, and Mrs. Kimball $50. This was immediately forwarded. Any money which can be given to this cause will be cabled abroad immediately if sent to Mrs. Russell Tyson at 60 East Washington street.

The American fund for French wounded reports that more than 5,000 hospitals received aid during June and that over 1,000,000 hospital articles and some 7,000,000 surgical dressings were supplied through its channels.

The supply of spagnum moss, which is so good for surgical dressing, is to be greatly increased in the fall, according to promises that have been pouring in at the headquarters of the woman's committee. The botanical department of the University of Washington in Seattle is going to collect the moss in the lake region near Seattle and a shipment is promised before fall. Mrs. John S. Runnells writes from Chocurya, N. H., that with the assistance of Prof. William Harlow of Harvard she has also discovered sphagnum moss and will send a large quantity about the first of October. From Camp Algonquin in New Hampshire is also promised great diligence by sphagnum hunters there, who hope the work will be kept up throughout their school year in North Carolina, where it seems sphagnum moss grows in abundance.

◆

An important announcement issued yesterday from the office of the Red Cross is that the national surgical dressings committee and the American National Red Cross have at last agreed upon a satisfactory coöperative plan. Henry P. Davidson, chairman of the Red Cross war council, issued the following statement:

◆

"The Red Cross is gratified to announce that the national surgical dressings committee, one of the most important of the relief organizations called into being by the European war, has become an auxiliary of the American Red Cross. This arrangement was perfected after protracted negotiation between Mrs. Mary Hatch Willard, the organizer and chairman of the national surgical dressings committee, and Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the Red Cross committee on coöperation.

"It is believed that this is the precursor of arrangements whereby other war relief organizations may become allies of the Red Cross. The national surgical dressings committee has made and forwarded more than 16,000,000 surgical dressings. The committee has about 25,000 working members in the United States.

"The arrangement provides that the national surgical dressings committee shall retain its name and organization and carry on its present work in this country as a national auxiliary of the American Red Cross. It may solicit funds in its own name, but no solicitation shall be made in the name of the Red Cross unless all the proceeds therefrom are turned over to the Red Cross.

"The Red Cross will seek to perfect the standards of materials sent abroad and will disseminate among all chapters and organizations doing relief work information as to the character and quantity of materials and supplies most needed at the front. The surgical dressings committee in its work for American hospitals in Europe will conform to such standards.

◆

"The French section of this committee will become the surgical dressings service department of the American National Red Cross. It will administer in France all the surgical dressings work of the Red Cross."

SOCIETY IN THE EAST

New York, Aug. 6.—[Special.]—The marriage of Miss Rosalie Genevieve O'Boyle, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Peter Aloysius O'Boyle of West Pittston, Pa., to Dr. Maxmilian Arthur Ramirez, son of Frank Ramirez of this city, will take place on Saturday, Aug. 18, in St. John's church, Pittston.

Freeman of 211 West Fifty-seventh street. He was graduated from Yale-Sheffield a year ago, and is now at the officers' training camp, Plattsburg. No date has been set for the wedding.

Here's Formula for Perspiration; Use with Care

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

If you missed the Antoinette Donnelly series telling how she reduced Mrs. Eva Lane thirty-six pounds in six weeks, or how she added twenty pounds in five weeks to Miss Helene Barnett's weight, or how she corrected a head of dry, thin, falling hair and an oily scalp with dandruff, or the article on treating Miss Hill's complexion for pimples and blackheads, send a stamped, addressed envelope and the information will be mailed to you. Any other questions pertaining to beauty and hygiene will be gladly answered.

DAINTY: A 25 per cent solution of aluminum chloride in distilled water, dabbed gently on the part every second or third day and allowed to dry on, is an excellent remedy for excessive perspiration. Three such applications are usually sufficient and then one application a week is usually enough to ward off recurrences. Dress shields usually aggravate the trouble and can be discarded after a few treatments. Reasonable care should be used in its application because the drug is not wholly bland and in excessive use will cause a sharp itching or stinging sensation. The lotion must be allowed to dry thoroughly before clothing is permitted to touch the skin. If itching does occur in spite of precautions, an ointment of cold cream containing 12 per cent of boric acid may be used. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall mail you the directions for removing a double chin. I agree with you, it is "excess baggage," but, fortunately, it is not the kind that is checked through to the end of life: that is, if you will otherwise.

MOTHER: YOU HAVE IT IN YOUR power to make a beautiful young woman of your 13 year old girl. During the years of active growth girls are pliable material to work with. If your question would occur to more parents there would be a noticeable decrease in the number of unattractive young women in the world. Even with an inherited weak constitution a mother may rear a girl under such favorable hygienic conditions during the growing period that she may acquire strength and vitality and become a beautiful woman. The narrow chest, the protruding abdomen, the flat foot, the nervous twitchings, and the general mental attitude may be corrected, and comparatively easily, by exercise. Let your daughter combine exercise with play. That will serve the purposes of the mind and body at the same time. There's tennis and swimming. There's walking, deep breathing, the morning plunge with the brisk after rub. All of these health and beauty builders are within the reach of even the poor girl nowadays. I have exercises for flatfoot, deep breathing, and chest developing which you are welcome to in return for a stamped, addressed envelope.

◆

KATHARINE: WARTS OFTEN will disappear as mysteriously as they came, but if they linger long enough to cause discomfort try the following treatment: Heat a needle to a red heat while holding it with pincers. Pass it through the wart. After the growth has disappeared massage the scars with a good skin food daily until the skin is normal again. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall mail you the formula for a good skin food and the directions for massage.

Conservation in South.

A letter received from Mrs. Charles L. West of Linden avenue, Oak Park, who is in Asheville, N. C., with her daughter, Miss Muriel West, tells of what is being done in Asheville in the cause of conservation.

"The women of Asheville," writes Mrs. West, "are vitally interested both in Red Cross and in the conservation movement. The woman's club here has established a municipal cannery and the city has purchased 40,000 tin cans and stored them in the city hall until such time as they are needed. They believe in preparedness, as the supply of tin cans is running short."

As the Needles Fly

AIDED by a knitting bag attached to one's walking stick, one may now take her knitting along to the beach. The Sticks are fantastically designed, and enameled; the bags may be of any chosen material.

Some one discovered that by taking sixty stitches across a scarf two balls of yarn are entirely used and the Scarf is of a better width.

Knitting

There are so many ways of bringing comfort to our soldiers who are now or soon will be in France. But when one considers the open trenches and the coldness of winter, about the most practical comfort would seem to be knitted mufflers or wristlets.

The yarns are here in the approved shades of gray and tan. An experienced teacher will gladly show any stitch or pattern. Every convenience has been provided to make this work pleasant and easy.

HERBERT BRENON presents
THE LONE WOLF
By Louis Joseph Vance
HAZEL DAWN as Lucy Shannon
BERT LYTELL as The Lone Wolf
"An airplane duel thousands of feet in the air, hide and seek on high roofs by men eager to kill, an auto plunge from a drawbridge pinnacle—these items are merely a few of the more gentle incidents of Herbert Brenon's melodrama."
Says Louella O. Parsons—Herald.

DESERVES GOLD MEDAL FOR THIS

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once and soon the corn loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and doesn't inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue or skin.

BIG BILL BOARD ASKED TODAY TO STRAFE KAISER

Also Will Pass on High Paid Places for Ripe Plum Seekers.

Six members of the board of education said last night that they were ready to aid in the effort to eliminate the eulogy of the kaiser from the speller used in the public schools. This attack is scheduled to begin at the board meeting this morning.

In addition it is expected that there will be a lively fight over the proposition to employ three assistants to the school board's attorney, Charles R. Francis, at increased salaries. It was reported in the city hall yesterday that Mr. Francis intends to appoint Joseph J. Sullivan, Gothard A. Dahlberg, and John A. Cooke. Dahlberg and Cooke are now assistant corporation counsels.

Mr. Francis wants a first assistant at $6,000 a year, a second assistant at $5,000, and a third at $3,000. The old schedule was $4,000 for the first assistant, $2,750 for the second, and $2,500 for the third. These positions were formerly filled by Chauncey M. Millar, John E. Foster, and Paul Steinbrecher.

Favor Barring Kaiser.

Joseph J. Sullivan is a resident of the Sixteenth ward and has been active politically. When Francis was city attorney, Sullivan was his first assistant. Dahlberg is a member of the Illinois house of representatives from the Thirteenth district. Cooke was formerly a stenographer and studied law at night. He was admitted to the bar and was made an assistant corporation counsel by Mayor Thompson.

Members of the board expressed themselves last night as follows with reference to keeping the eulogy of the kaiser in the speller:

CHARLES S. PETERSON—The reference to the kaiser should be eliminated, irrespective of everything else. I am ready to act to bring this about.

GEORGE B. ARNOLD—I have not yet seen the speller, but will look it up the first thing in the morning. If I find any praise of the kaiser there, well, I am an American first, last, and all the time.

Eulogy Dull at Best.

RICHARD G. CANNON—"I think the reference to the kaiser ought to come out of the speller, but I have been in the minority."

MRS. FRANCIS E. THORNTON—"I am willing to see the page go. I do not think any child would read such a dull, prosaic thing. It is principally their elders who are disturbed about it. My action at the board meeting will depend entirely upon how the matter is presented. But I am sorry it is in the book. If any loyal Americans want to tear it out, let them do so."

ANTHONY CZARNECKI—"The reference to the kaiser is an insult to Americans. It has got to come out."

JACOB M. LOEB—"In view of the circumstances I think the passage ought to be eliminated."

Parents Appealed To.

In the supply room of the board of education there are 10,387 copies of the speller. Anthony Czarnecki plans to introduce a resolution this morning directing an employé of the board to cut the offending page out of these books. A contract for 40,000 more copies of the speller has been let to P. F. Pettibone & Co. The page will not appear in these books.

The speller is already in the hands of about 300,000 pupils of the public schools. Mr. Czarnecki intends to ask the board to direct Supt. Shoop to issue an appeal to all loyal Americans to have their children tear out this page when the next term of the school year opens.

As a result of the withdrawal of sergeants and other officers who were detailed to give high school pupils instruction in military training, Supt. Shoop has written to Secretary of War Baker asking that twelve men be detailed to continue the work. It was reported yesterday that an attempt was made to have local appointments made, but that an urgent demand was made that the instruction be placed under the direction of the war department.

CITIZENS UNITE TO PROTECT NO. SIDE BEACHES

"All verboten signs, that interfere with public enjoyment of the beaches must go," declared Richard Logeman, who was elected president. F. F. Arnold was chosen as vice president, A. S. Aroner as secretary, and Eugene Witzleben treasurer. Mrs. K. F. McClennan, Miss Amelia Sullivan, and Mrs. C. J. Rennie also were chosen as vice presidents.

The North Shore Beach Improvement association met at the Green Mill gardens. The leaders in this organization are Guy Morville of 5131 Winthrop avenue and Benjamin Garetson of 4000 Kenmore avenue. They plan to amalgamate all neighborhood beach associations. They will seek improvement of beaches, better policing and better life saving methods. Capt. W. K. Evans, formerly of the police identification bureau; J. E. Willis, and Tom Chamales also are interested in the movement.

Oak street beach hereafter is open to the public for bathing, if the decision of Judge Caverly rendered yesterday stands as law. The charges against those arrested several nights ago on the charge of disobeying the police regulations against bathing at Oak street were dismissed.

Van Gordon sang "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" and "The Battle Cry of Freedom," assisted by a massed choir and the Crane Company band, which also played several patriotic selections. The program was in tribute to George Frederick Root, the civil war composer.

DWIGHT LINN IS KILLED BY TRAIN ON WAY HOME

Dwight Linn, son of William R. Linn of 1415 Astor street, and brother of Howard Linn, was killed yesterday when he fell from a Great Western railroad train near St. Charles, Ill., the summer home of his parents.

Mr. Linn had been in ill health for the last two years, it was said, and had been spending much of his time in St. Charles. Late on Sunday he started for Chicago, and it was believed had reached his destination safely.

Body Found Near Bridge.

Early yesterday morning, however, his body was found on the railway tracks a short distance from the bridge over the Fox river.

A coroner's jury was impaneled and in behalf of the family Arthur Orr of Chicago, who also has a home near St. Charles and who was interpreter for Gen. Joffre when the French field marshal was a guest of the nation, appeared to relate the incident of the young man's departure for Chicago.

Fell from Vestibule?

From the testimony it appeared that Mr. Linn probably was riding in an open vestibule or some other open part of the train to get the fresh air when he fell, his weakened condition preventing him from saving himself.

The coroner's jury returned a verdict of death by accident and exonerated the train crew.

Mr. Linn was 25 years old. He was a graduate of Yale. Previously to the last two years, when his health gave signs of breaking, he had been in business with his father.

INOCULATED BY PATIENT, WOMAN DOCTOR ENDS LIFE

Takes Nitroglycerin and Chloroform in Loop Hotel.

Dr. Bertha S. Park, 39 years old, a physician well known in Denver, Colo., died yesterday a martyr to her profession.

She committed suicide in her room at the Morrison hotel by taking nitroglycerin and then spreading two towels saturated with chloroform over her face and inhaling the fumes.

Several years ago, while assisting her father, who also was a physician, in a surgical operation upon a patient afflicted with a deadly disease, she became infected through a scratch upon her finger. She was never able to eradicate it. The disease sapped her vitality and preyed upon her mind. It had left her in later years subject to melancholia.

Was in Acute Pain.

This secret of her life she imparted to Dr. Charles W. Glover, 2297 Milwaukee avenue, who treated her here. She recently had suffered acute pain. While on her way from Denver to Detroit two months ago she took an overdose of valerian on the train. Dr. Glover, who was called, met her at the depot.

Dr. Glover was called again to attend her at the Morrison hotel, where she registered last Wednesday. She said to him, "If the pain becomes much more intense I will end it all."

Dr. Park seemed particularly anxious Sunday about a letter which she expected from Denver. She repeatedly asked Miss Helen Curtis, the floor clerk, about her mail.

Miss Curtis finally took the awaited letter to her room. Dr. Park tore it open and read it. The news evidently was bad. Miss Curtis withdrew, and what the information was that so affected her is not known.

Miss Curtis went to her room at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and found her dead. On the dresser were two notes. One was sealed and addressed to Dr. Grant S. Peck, said to be her brother-in-law, 229 Majestic building, Denver. It will not be opened until the inquest today.

CHILD BAZAAR INCREASES ICE FUND BY $18

Children did their bit yesterday in adding to THE TRIBUNE'S ice fund for babies. Seven south side youngsters held a bazaar and the proceeds, $18, were added to the amount that will be used for relief of infants. The children who gave the bazaar were Helen Cooper, Ethel Cooper, Babette, Jane, and Marion Sechbach, Sarah Kersten, and Mildred West.

A lemonade stand presided over by Ruth D. Cohen and Katherine Moore of Washington Park netted $1 profit, and this was turned over to the ice fund.

Summer Bridge club	$25	Lemonade stand	1
E. A. D.	3	William and Edward Heinsheimer	5
Mrs. N. S. Florsheim	10	Little girls' bazaar	18

K. OF C. PLANS A $10,000,000 SOLDIERS' GIFT

A war fund of $10,000,000 is to be created by members of the Knights of Columbus throughout the country to establish recreation centers, foreign intelligence bureaus, and a Knights of Columbus auditorium at each regular army post and cantonment, according to plans discussed at a meeting of the supreme officials of the order at the Hotel La Salle yesterday.

The fund will be subscribed by Catholics of America and will be controlled by a special committee to be chosen at the meetings here this week. The formal opening of the convention will take place this morning.

STATE STREET THEATERS TO BUY CASKET FOR JOE

Fund Also Will Help Actress Sister of Lake Victim.

State street is taking care of Mary Tooker, actress, whose little brother Joe was drowned in the lake at the foot of Erie street Sunday evening. Joe's cries for help were thought to be a joke and he sank, with several men close at hand who might have saved him.

The lists asking for donations were handled by performers now playing at the National theater, 608 South State street, whre Joe was known and liked as a "regular kid," according to one of the performers, who paused for a moment in the task of daubing his face with paint and powder to transform him into an ideal joker State street "funny man."

"Sawed Off" Heads the List.

"Sawed Off" headed the list with a donation of $1, Good Guy was down for 50 cents, Porcupine, Harry the Kid, Booster Ed, Tommie the Newsie, Pat, Zaza, Jim the Fireman, Bear, Little Jimmy, Nick, Lurgio, Veno, and about 100 others of similar name were on the list for amounts running from 50 cents to $5.

In the theater one of the chorus girls came rushing into the stage door last night with a copy of yesterday's TRIBUNE opened at the page where the picture of Little Joe was printed.

"Ain't that the goods, though, girls?" she asked breathlessly. "Sure, an' he was sure some good little kid, too. Mary's all broke up about it an' she had to pay for a cable to her mother last night. Say, all the houses on the street are going to take up a collection among the performers for her."

Three Brothers with Allies.

Mary's stage name is Marie Doreen. She was born in England and she and Joe came to this country last September to help to earn money to support their mother. Three brothers are now fighting with the allies in France and four sisters are with the Red Cross.

The body of Joe is now at 1122 North Clark street and burial probably will be held from there tomorrow.

BEG YOUR PARDON:

The contribution of Arthur Young to the western relief fund was $5,000, not $1,000 as printed in THE TRIBUNE of Aug. 4. That fund was referred to, also inaccurately, as the American branch of the Canadian patriotic fund.

Several readers express resentment over THE TRIBUNE'S recent references in cartoon and editorial to Nero's alleged performance upon the fiddle while Rome burned. The objections are based on the statement that violins were not made until nearly a century after the big fire and that the instrument employed in the famous concert was a lyre.

WHOLE COURT TO HEAR GEMMILL'S CERMAK CHARGES

Investigation of the charges made against the office of Chief Bailiff A. J. Cermak by Municipal Court Judge William N. Gemmill probably will be conducted by the entire Municipal court bench.

This was the tentative decision reached yesterday by Chief Justice Olson, to whom the formal charges were presented by Judge Gemmill.

"It is my notion," said Judge Olson, "that these charges should be made under oath by Judge Gemmill. As soon as that is done, or a way is provided whereby Judge Gemmill can stand behind the charges under oath, I suppose the hearings will be started without further delay."

Judge Gemmill called on the chief justice in his chambers yesterday and told him that he would not divulge the charges until the court was ready to act on them.

According to Judge Olson, Judge Gemmill said he did not make a specific charge of dishonesty against Mr. Cermak, nor did he desire to have it understood that he was criticizing the chief justice. Judge Gemmill, however, is understood to be standing pat on his charges and demanding that a thorough investigation be made.

Mr. Cermak came in from his country home at Antioch yesterday and held a brief conference with Justice Olson. He then hurried to his physician who ordered him back to the lake for a ten day rest before finally determining whether an operation would be necessary for gall stones.

Mr. Cermak, before leaving the city last night, announced that he would bring suit against Judge Gemmill for damages as soon as the investigation had been completed.

JOINTS OF AGE AGAIN SUPPLE; PIONEERS DANCE

Early German Settlers Trip Old Steps Anew.

A dozen nosegays all in a row loosened the joints of age and set six of the oldest couples dancing at the festival in Brand's park yesterday. It was the forty-third annual picnic of the Chicago Turn-Gemeinde for the old settlers. And they were all there in the ballroom smiling.

Georgi Moritz, 92 years young, pirouetted about with Mrs. Maria Brecklin, 74, and carried off a bouquet as a prize, amid hurrahs from the band. Fritz Gabriel, 83, after a search for a dancing partner during most of the afternoon, finally found Mrs. Katherine Lasse, an agile young great-grandmother of 77, who waltzed him to success and a bunch of posies as a winning couple.

Heinrich Runge, 82, and Mrs. Augusta Schwieger, 75; William Kasang, 84, and his wife Minna, 72; Friederich Guenther, 73, and Albertina Dautel, 80; and Gus Lange, 67, and his wife, 82, were other couples awarded flowers for their youth.

August Temme Gets Medal.

August Temme of 2249 North Sawyer avenue, who has resided in Chicago since 1844, won a medal as a German born old settler living here for the greatest number of years. Mrs. Susanna Wermerskirchen of 2035 Osgood street, who has lived in Chicago for seventy-one years, was given a medal as the oldest woman.

Isaac Russell of 2836 Walnut street was decorated as the oldest man who was not born in Germany, having lived in Chicago since 1839, and Sophia B. Farrar of 3130 South Dearborn street as the oldest woman.

Otto Gaul of 1024 North Ashland avenue was given a medal as having been the longest in the employ of the same business concern in Chicago. He was with the Peter Schuettler wagon company for fifty years.

Fifty Years in One Place.

John Aron, who has lived at 724 Rees street for fifty years and nine months, won a decoration. But Mrs. Katherine Schmidt, 80 years old, would have taken the prize had she not been delayed by a street car. Her home has been at 105 East Delaware place for fifty-eight years.

AT THE MILL

Prospective Grist for the Divorce Court Hopper.

Sara Long of 1505 West Adams street is accused of misconduct by Melvin G. Long. In the bill the name of Charles Butler of Crystal Lake is mentioned.

Bonnie Margaret Pick accuses Arthur C. Pick of 1053 Grace street, a salesman, of infidelity. She says he admitted it, and she has the "other woman's" letters.

SUMMER CLUB COMES TO AID OF ALGONQUIN

The Summer Bridge club, an organization composed of seventy north shore women, sent in its annual contribution of $50 yesterday, half of which is to go to the Algonquin camp fund and half to the babies' ice fund. Mrs. William E. Stiles is president of the organization and Mrs. George Spoor is secretary and treasurer.

"We are also doing Red Cross work," the club members report, "but we must help the mothers and babies."

"Please use this money toward sending any mother to the camp at Algonquin," wrote Effie Williams. "I hope this will help some one to be happy."

Summer Bridge club	$25.00	Working Girl	$1.00
Julia R. Wilcox	1.00	Mrs. J.	2.00
J. V.	2.00	Jessie Koessler	20.00

800 UNITE TO DEFY CLOSING OF COUNTY SALOONS

Annual Fund Will Be Devoted to the Fight Against Law.

State's Attorney Hoyne's men are conducting a rigid inquiry into reports that a number of country saloonkeepers and certain officials of a few towns have formed a conspiracy to defeat Sunday closing.

The burden of these reports is that an organization of saloonkeepers and officials has been established to defy the state's attorney, to disobey the law with impunity, and to hire counsel to defend any members who may get themselves into trouble through disobedience to the law.

Cicero and Lyons saloonkeepers, according to these reports, allied themselves with some Forest Parkmen and gave impetus to the movement. The investigation, it was announced yesterday, may end in the grand jury chamber.

Meet to Organize.

Following the announcement a reporter started an inquiry on his own hook. He learned that saloonkeepers from all parts of the country, and village officials interested in the liquor industry, met in Schwass' hall in Forest Park last Friday. An organization was formed, of which Herman Reichardt, saloonkeeper of Forest Park, was made president; Tom Cerney of Forest Park, secretary; and Robert Parchman, mayor of Lyons, who also is a saloonkeeper, treasurer.

Henry Kaul, president of the village board of Forest Park, told a reporter that he deplored the meeting, inasmuch as he is doing everything in his power to comply with the state's attorney's ultimatum. William McGurn, saloonkeeper, who was with Kaul when a reporter talked with him, said that he attended the meeting.

To Get $8,000 a Year.

"It was called by Christ Lange, a contractor, and Tom Cerny, our former treasurer," he said, Kaul adding verification.

"Lange was made organizer at a salary of $150 a month, and the dues of the saloonkeepers were made $10 a year. The organization is trying to enroll all the saloon men in the country towns, 800 of them, which would mean dues amounting to $8,000 a year."

George Schrade, president; Jesse Roberts, attorney, and members of the board of trustees of Stickney called on Assistant State's Attorney Charles C. Case, who is handling the saloon question in Mr. Hoyne's absence from the city, yesterday and indicated that they would revoke the licenses of Stickney's seven saloons.

Sheriff Traeger gave out a summary of 144 violations reported Sunday, as follows: Lyons, 35; Stickney, 5; Justice, 6; Willow Springs, 5; Chicago Ridge, 1; Worth, 2; Forest Park, 18; River Grove, 3; Cicero, 69.

POLICE ORDERED BY SCHUETTLER TO SALUTE FLAG

Chicago's police force is to set the example of patriotic observance in saluting the national emblem upon all public and semi-public occasions. That this observance already is in force was explained last night by Chief Schuettler, who said he is making every effort to impress it upon his men that it is their duty to set an example before the citizens.

"On last Saturday, the day of the parade of the new national army," said the chief, "I instructed First Deputy Westbrook to issue a general order to all commanding officers to enforce the rule calling upon all members of the department to salute the flag. To inform myself of the execution of the order I made a tour of inspection down Michigan avenue on Saturday and was told by such commanding officers as I met that the order had been received and transmitted.

"I do not claim that there are no infractions of the order, but I insist that there must be obedience or there will be penalties for those who fail. Perhaps some of the new patrolmen were lax on Saturday in saluting, but this was a fault of the head and not the heart."

First Deputy Westbrook said he sent Chief Schuettler's order to all commanders on Saturday morning, together with a request for a report on compliance with the order. It has been shown that infraction were few, he reports. Chief Schuettler said his department must conduct itself in a manner to dissipate any doubt of loyalty and also to set an example of rigid patriotism.

CARBIDE MAKES QUICK ADVANCE; CLOSES 191 3-8

Prestolite Has Another Upturn; Gains 4 3-4 Points.

Union Carbide stock had a quick advance on the local exchange, unaccompanied, however, by any special news. The shares jumped from a close on Friday at 185⅞ to 191⅜, the final quotation. Prestolite stock had another upturn, making a gain of 4¾ points compared with Friday's close. The final quotation was 148.

Peoples Gas was in somewhat better demand and closed at 75, against the previous closing quotation at 72½.

The packing house stocks were dull and about steady. Commonwealth Edison developed slight weakness, selling off 1 point. Sears-Roebuck common was up nearly 3 points. There was no news to account for the advance.

The local market as a whole closed in good tone.

National Bank Resources.

Resources of the national banks of the country, according to the report of their condition at the time of the last call by the controller of currency on June 20, aggregated $16,151,000,000 and established a new high recor. As compared with a year ago, resources showed a gain of $2,224,000,000, and they were $6,637,000 larger than on the previous call of May 1.

The surplus reserve over and above amount required at the time of the call amounted to $842,000,000, and while this is a decrease of $132,000,000, as compared with the previous call, it is an increase of $41,000,000, as compared with June 30, 1916.

Deposits Fall Off.

Deposits also showed a falling off since the preceding call, being $12,769,000,000, or a reduction of $306,000,000, but at the same time they showed an increase of $1,912,000,000 as compared with June 30 of last year.

Loans and discounts were $8,818,000,000, an increase over May 1 of $66,000,000, and an increase over June 30, 1916, of $248,000,000.

The total reserve on hand was $2,310,000,000, a reduction as compared with the call of May 1 of $163,000,000, but an increase of $234,000,000 as compared with the figures of June 30, 1916. The percentage of total reserve to deposits on June 30, 1917, was 22.91, as compared with 24.05 per cent May 1, 1917, and 23.86 per cent June 30, 1916.

Big Reserves Held.

The central reserve cities held 19.70 per cent of reserve, against a required holding of 18 per cent. Other reserve cities held a reserve of 22.45 per cent against a requirement of 15 per cent. The country banks, which were required to carry 12 per cent, held on June 20, 1917, a reserve of 25.33 per cent of their net profits.

Legal tender and specie on hand, in addition to the balance in federal reserve banks, totaled $1,482,000,000, a decrease from the figures of the previous call of $43,000,000, but a gain of $248,000,000, as against the figures of June 30, 1916. The $1,482,000,000 of total reserve was $14,000,000 in excess of the total reserve required.

Bonds and Securities.

Bonds and securities, other than governments, were $1,843,000,000, a reduction of $14,000,000 from the figures of the previous call, but a gain of $315,000,000 as compared with June 30, 1916. The amount due from banks, other than federal reserve banks, $1,637,000,000, a decrease of $201,000,000 as compared with the call of May 1, 1917, and an increase of $312,000,000 as compared with June 30, 1916. The amount due banks was $3,025,000,000, a reduction of $353,000,000 since May 1, 1917, but an increase of $312,000,000 since June 30, 1916.

The increase in the item bills payable and rediscounts of $278,000,000 was attributed to the temporary financing incident to the negotiation of the Liberty bonds issue. The figures were $371,000,000, which also is an increase of $303,000,000, as compared with June, 1916.

Money and Exchange.

Money rates in Chicago steady at 5@5½ per cent on collateral, 4¾@5 per cent on commercial paper, 5@5½ per cent over the counter. New York exchange, 10@15c discount. Chicago bank clearings, $73,075,679.

GAS HEAD DENIES STORY OF SHORT TERM NOTE ISSUE

"We are getting our plant ready for the new process and our expanding business, but the estimated costs are subject to almost continuous revision these days, as is the estimated time for completing any new projects.

"The ultimate cost has been estimated at over $20,000,000, but I prefer not to commit myself to any definite statement. The recently published report that the company would merely begin construction of the new coal gas plant within ninety days after accepting the city's new gas rate ordinance—as the ordinance required—but would defer additional work as much as possible during the war period, is news to me, as is another report that we contemplate issuing $8,000,000 short term notes for the initial unit.

"We have not decided upon any sort of financing, nor is any immediate financing necessary."

SEES FUTURE TAXATION OF FEDERAL BONDS

It is insisted that Washington is giving serious consideration to future taxation of government bonds, which means Liberty loan issues. Within six weeks it is thought a new loan of $3,000,000,000 already authorized will be announced. At the present rate of advances being made by the allies, this large sum will have been exhausted by Jan. 1.

Estimate of bonds to be issued for a successful prosecution of the war vary from $25,000,000,000 to $40,000,000,000, depending on the duration of the conflict.

At present United States bond issues are not subject to tax. However, with such a huge issue as $25,000,000,000 or $40,000,000,000 nontaxable government bonds, some students of finance see an avenue for the escape of capital from the channels of industry.

SUGAR.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—SUGAR—Prices were quoted by the wholesale dealers per 100 lbs; Powdered, standard, $9.05; standard cane granulated, $8.90; beet, granulated, $8.80; extra C, $8.00; canary, $7.90.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—SUGAR—The market for raw sugar was firm, but with business limited to 3,500 bags of Porto Rico for late August shipment, at $7.34. Cubas closed nominally as follows: Centrifugal, $7.27@7.40; molasses, $6.39@6.52 and cost and freight 6¼@6⅝c.

Refined sugar was strong, although somewhat unsettled at the close of the day. Leading refiners advanced variously from 15 to 35 points, making the list price at the close from $8.30 to $8.75. Reflecting the strength of raw and refined, the market for sugar futures made new high records. After opening unchanged to an advance of 6 points, the market continued to advance until checked temporarily at noon by realising. Later there was fresh buying, which caused another jump and the market closed firm at 8 to 25 points net advance. Sales, 25,250 tons. September sold from $6.19 to $6.38, closing $6.34; December, $5.69 to $5.80, closing $5.77; January, $5.25 to $5.34, closing $5.32, and March $5.00 to $5.09, closing $5.07.

FUTURES BREAK AFTER BIG DROP IN CASH MARKETS

Shipping Demand Slow for Wheat; Oats Close 5@12 Cents Lower.

Corn prices were affected by the extremely favorable crop conditions, by the weakness in cash oats and oats futures, and by the lack of new buying. Cash prices for corn were steady to 2½c lower, with continued light offerings from the country. Futures met with fair support on the dip, but the finish was 1⅛@2c lower, the May leading the decline.

The visible supply decreased 617,000 bu. Receipts were 218 cars, with primary receipts 1,395,000, compared to 720,000 a year ago. Weather map showed general rains through the west and southwest and also in northwest portions of the corn belt, where moisture was needed. The general outlook for the crop is excellent and it is expected the August government estimates will be as large as private indications. Recent hot weather has forced the corn close to normal growth. World's shipments were small. Local cash sales were 25,000 bu.

Cash Oats Premiums Fading.

Cash oats prices were off 5@12c, premiums slumping on moderate offerings of new oats, while there was an absence of buyers. Only a few of the shippers were in the mraket, and these bid much lower prices. Futures felt the effect of the partial removal of the chief bull factor and there was little support until the market worked below the bid prices. Last prices were 1½@1¾c lower. Cash sales were 110,000 bu. Clearances of oats for the day were 445,000 bu. Commission houses were free sellers of futures and there was scattered liquidation of long oats by local bulls. Receipts were 261 cars, with primary receipts of 1,560,000 bu, compared to 1,654,000 bu a year ago. The visible supply decreased 1,587,000 bu for the week. Crop reports were all of the most optimistic kind.

Wheat Dull and Lower.

Wheat was 2½c lower for the September, but there were only a few trades. Cash prices are beginning to feel the effect of new crop offerings, and the enormous premiums are beginning to fade away, yesterday red wheat losing about 10c and hard wheat 5@8c. Country sales are moderate. Milling trade is quiet. Receipts were 121 cars here, with primary receipts 1,833,000 bu, against 3,172,000 bu a year ago. Clearances were 967,000 bu. The visible supply decreased 1,071,000 bu. Winter wheat yields, according to thrashing reports, are proving much better than expected. In the northwest generally conditions are more favorable.

Lard Again Scores Advance.

Products prices were higher. Offerings were small at the opening, and with hogs sharply higher there was a sharp upturn. Later there was a fair reaction on profit taking, but the close showed substantial net gains for the day. Hogs were 15@20c higher tnan Friday, and there was only a moderate run at the yards, 33,000, with 15,000 the estimate for today. Western receipts were 82,100, compared to 77,800 a year ago.

Rye in Big Drop.

Rye was 10@17c lower, with cash No. 2 selling $1.93@2.02. Receipts were 19 cars.

Barley ruled steady. Malting was quoted $1.35@1.52 and sold $1.41@1.45; feed and mixing, quotable $1.25@1.41, with sales at $1.40@1.41; screenings were quoted 60c@$1.10 and sold 80c. Receipts 30 cars.

Timothy seed was quiet. September closed $9.50 bid and $9.90 asked; March, $9.25 bid and $9.50 asked. Cash quoted $5.00@8.50. Clover seed was unchanged, with cash quotable $14.00@19.00 and spot prime $19.90 nominal.

Flax closed strong, with cash quotable $3.40@3.45. Duluth was unchanged; Minneapolis firm and Winnipeg reported a holiday.

GOSSIP OF THE PIT

Readjustment of cash prices for grain was the big feature of the trade yesterday. Prices for cash oats melted away rapidly yesterday. Premiums were off 5@12c and there was little demand, with old oats selling at about the same prices as the new. Offerings from the country were a little larger, and it is understood there will be a fair movement of oats, considerable quantities having been sent forward on consignment to catch high premiums prevailing at terminal markets. Yesterday there were few buyers, most of the shippers being inclined to wait for the new oats, which they believe are bound to come forward.

* * *

Sentiment in regard to oats was more bearish than it has been for some time, the slump in cash prices being regarded as significant. The threshing reports are all indicative of tremendous yields in nearly every section. Buying of September has been based on the opinion there would be no chance to accumulate stocks, but some of the leading cash men are of the opinion there will be more oats offered shortly than can be handled easily. The east has a big crop of oats, and eastern distributing centers are likely to get much nearby stuff, while the export business in the early fall is apt to be still delayed in a measure at least by the embargo regulations.

* * *

"With the movement of new oats and barley and the enactment of the food bill into law, we believe existing high premiums for cash grain are likely to disappear to a large extent," said Rosenbaum Review. "It behooves the dealer to limit his commitments until the values of spot grain and the values of future contracts are adjusted. There has been an actual scarcity of grain at all terminal markets. We believe this condition will change soon and the change is apt to be rapid."

* * *

"The theory that September oats will indefinitely represent empty terminals is seriously weakened by the oats news of Aug. 1-6," said Wagner & Co. "The marketing of this crop is likely to be a great task for the exchanges. Oats threshing returns exceed any previous records and suggest close to 1,600,000,000 bu. The former record crop of 1,540,000,000 bu was foreshadowed by an August estimate of 1,402,000,000 bu.

* * *

Visible supply of wheat in the United States this week decreased 1,071,000 bu, while corn decreased 617,000 bu, and oats decreased 1,587,000 bu. Rye visible increased 18,000 bu and barley decreased 273,000 bu. Comparative totals follow:

	This week.	Last week.	Last yr.
Wheat	5,819,000	6,890,000	49,516,000
Corn	2,841,000	3,458,000	6,036,000
Oats	6,679,000	8,266,000	8,198,000
Rye	480,000	462,000	483,000
Barley	1,202,000	1,475,000	1,495,000

* * *

World's shipments of wheat last week totaled 10,561,000 bu, an increase of 3,565,000 bu, and compared with 11,669,000 bu a year ago. Corn exports were 1,278,000 bu, decreasing 256,000 bu, and comparing with 5,220,000 bu a year ago. Oats shipments totaled 4,098,000 bu, an increase of 368,00 bu, and compared with 5,925,000 bu a year ago.

* * *

Broomhall comments on the large percentage of flour included in the world's shipments of wheat, the equivalent of over 1,000,000 bu wheat as flour having been cleared for the united kingdom the last week.

* * *

Receipts inspected yesterday: Wheat, 121 cars; corn, 218 cars; oats, 261 cars; rye, 19 cars; barley, 30 cars. Hogs estimated for today, 15,000 head.

STOCK INQUIRY BROADENS.

New York, Aug. 6.—Renewal of trading after the stock market's double recess was characterized by a relatively broad inquiry for active stocks. Pools also found it easy to advance various specialties, tobaccos, oils, and sugars being particularly responsive at extreme gains of 2 to 6 points.

Steels and associated shares also moved to higher levels, though experiencing irregular impairment later on profit taking. The war group in general augmented last week's gains, with coppers, motors, and utilities.

Rails and shippings were apathic, aside from the activity of secondary transportation issues, Missouri Pacific preferred scoring a gross gain of 2¾ points on extensive accumulation.

Improvement in Money Market.

Developments over the week were mostly of the sort to lend encouragement to the long account, but a large percentage of the turnover represented little more than the closing of short contracts. Call and time loans reflected marked improvement in the local money market.

Foreign exchange was not materially altered, but the more hopeful view of the Russian situation probably accounted for the better tone of rubles. Gold imports continued, a total of $8,000,000 being received from Canada since last Friday.

Bonds were irregular. Liberty 3½s, which now are being quoted in fractions of hundredths instead of fiftieths, were fairly active at 99.64 to 99.76. United States bonds (old issues) were unchanged on call.

BOSTON STOCK TRANSACTIONS

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 6.—[Special.]—More animation was shown on the local board today than for a long while, by virtue of the strength and activity in the coal stocks and also the marked improvement in the copper group. Call money ruled at 4½@5 per cent; time loans, short dates, 5@5¼ per cent; time loans, six months, 5@5½ per cent; time loans, one year, 5¼@5½ per cent.

ON THE BROAD STREET CURB

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—[Special.]—A large part of the curb market interest today was concentrated in the independent oil stocks, practically all the shares in that group making substantial gains. Buying came from the investment and development class of operators, whose trading was based on the industrial situation with the efforts to obtain petroleum production being a chief factor in inducing purchases of stocks of known producers, and lively speculation in stocks of companies that had good prospects of joining the producing group.

Northwestern Oil, the most prominent of this class, continued its upward movement, selling at $1.06, a new high record. Merritt Oil rose from 42¼@43, Oklahoma Producing from 10⅛@11⅛, Osage from 9⅛@9⅝, and Elk Basin from 13¼@14.

Announcement was made of the merger of Wyoming Oil companies, under the title of the Wyoming United Oil, which controls properties already in the producing class. According to an authorized statement, financial arrangements have been completed for broad development work by the Tuxpam Oil company.

Mining stocks were active, with irregular movements. Big Ledge advanced from 1⅝@2 and Emma Consolidated was traded around 1⅜. Advices in regard to ore reserves on this property from the general manager were favorable, with some ore tests showing 35 per cent lead and 77 ounces of silver. Mason Valley was firm, with sales at 7⅞@8. Calumet and Jerome sold a 1¾. Nipissing was steady with sales at 7⅝ and 7½.

The airplane stocks were irregular, Wright-Martin being heavy and declining from 13½@12¾, while Curtis was in good demand and advanced from 52½@53¾. Ætna Explosives shaded off slightly, while Submarine Boat made a fractional gain.

MARKET COMMENT

It's expected in Wall street that the next market movement in the stock market will be in the direction of higher prices. Standard Oil interests are credited with promoting the agitation looking to the conservation of resources on the prospect that the reduction in the consumption of gasoline will give a wider market, said to be more profitable for the crude products of the Standard Oil companies.

The failure of shares of the Bethlehem Steel corporation to respond to the strength in other steel issues is considered due to the action of the government in taking over shipbuilding under construction in the United States. The Bethlehem Steel corporation a short time ago controlled between 35 and 40 per cent of all shipbuilding in the country. Naturally its percentage to total production will shrink as a result of extensive plans for expanding the shipbuilding industry. Bethlehem Steel may have to pay out around 40 per cent of its profits this year on account of war taxes.

Continued absence of further bad news on the war situation or other matters recently under discussion in New York and at Washington helped prices on the New York exchange. Commission house business showed a fair increase compared with last week, with most of it coming on the bull side. The only bear pressure at times was in the motor stock.

It is declared the copper market shows no tendency to awaken from the dullness of the last week. Prices are reported unchanged from Friday. Some inquiry is noted from buyers. The production of eastern smelters and refineries during the last week was less than for many years past, owing to suspension of all operations during the excessive heat.

In well informed quarters closely in touch with tobacco interests it is said that the partial prohibition measures relating to whisky are having a tendency toward increasing tobacco consumption and that it is believed if the beer ban should go through the tobacco business would be enormously stimulated.

Good buying is reported to be taking place in United States Steel from prominent and wealthy men in the Pittsburgh district. It is also rumored that the speculative grain and cotton contingents are loading up with Steel common, in anticipation of a return to higher record levels.

A further rise in the oil stocks generally is being predicted by interests close to the Standard Oil people. Gasoline for export has been again advanced, and it is said additional advances are likely to be announced in various oils during the next few weeks.

Floor gossip referring to a strong pool in American Beet Sugar accumulation is said to have been taking place during all declines. The stock is estimated to be earning at the rate of $40 per share.

The floating supply of American Cotton Oil and Virginia Caroline Chemical stock is reported from specialists to be very small.

To Manufacturers and Distributors who seek South American and Southern Business

Savannah is one of the largest ports of export on the Atlantic Coast, and the fastest growing important seaport in the United States, because of the advantages it offers as a manufacturing and distributing centre for the South and South America.

Situate on the Southeastern coast, with a magnificent harbor, and direct and ample rail connections to the South and Middle West, it is getting a large share of the rapidly increasing foreign and domestic business of the important territory it serves.

This Company offers very exceptional advantages for the establishment on its property, just outside of Savannah, of manufacturing, assembling and distributing plants.

The Port Wentworth Terminal comprises some three thousand acres with nearly two miles of frontage on tide water. It is on the line of the Savannah & Atlanta Railway, which serves not only as a connection with all other roads entering Savannah but which through advantageous traffic arrangements with the Georgia Railroad forms the short line to Atlanta and the Middle West.

The Savannah Sugar Refinery (annual output 150,000 tons).
The Diamond Match Company plans to erect a plant near the Terminal property.

Other large industrial undertakings are negotiating for sites. Homes for workmen and their families are constructed as required, on an attractive space reserved for the purpose and fully laid out by Chas. W. Leavitt, well known as an expert in the planning of industrial towns.

Engineers of this corporation will gladly confer with Executives as to the specific advantages a seaport warehouse or branch plant at Savannah might offer to the business under consideration.

Savannah, Ga.

Insurance Corporation.

A. G. E., Hampshire, Ill.—The Insurance corporation of St. Louis has an authorized capital of $2,000,000 and is selling the stock. The money received will be used to organize a fire insurance company and a trust company. The Insurance corporation will be a holding company, owning all the stock of the two other companies. The undertaking has reputable backing, but its prospectus gives an exaggerated idea of the profits of fire insurance. The fact is that competition is severe and average profits small. The companies that pay enormous dividends get the money from the investment of surplus built up years ago when profits were larger. A new company is a business venture whose success will depend partly on the ability of the management and partly on luck in fire losses.

Oklahoma Producing and Refining.

J. J. M.—The Oklahoma Producing and Refining company was formed early last year. It issued $2,500,000 of stock and acquired 1,300 acres of oil lands. Later it acquired more lands and a refinery and issued $2,500,000 more stock. The stock was put on a 10 per cent dividend basis last year. Earnings in the first quarter of this year were at the rate of 36½ per cent annually. Recently 500,000 new shares of $5 par were offered to stockholders at $8 a share, the money to be used in taking over a company having 37,000 acres of land and a daily production of 4,000 barrels. The stock is evidently highly speculative.

Brief Answers.

H. G. McC.—All Package Grocery recently reported gross sales at the rate of $2,000,000 a year, but did not report profits. On April 30 last it had $1,359,150 of preferred stock outstanding and tangible assets equal to 55 per cent of that amount. The stock must depend for value on future growth and earnings.

A. S.—There is a variety of conservative short term notes and bonds on the market yielding from 5½ to 6½ per cent. Go to a reputable bond house and ask for some. We will help you make a selection from the offerings if you wish.

F. De G.—The stocks you ask about are purely speculative. You would do better to make your first venture in bonds. If you insist on stock, select something that has known earning power.

D. C. S.—The Liberty bonds will be ready whenever the government gets them printed. When that will be nobody knows, but there is talk about Sept. 15 as the date.

M. D., South Bend, Ind.—The Eagle Oil company, on the basis of its prospectus, is a wildcat speculation.

W. W. W., Jamestown, N. D.—St. Paul common sold ex-dividend on Feb. 6 last.

COTTON.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—COTTON—There was a general advance of approximately a cent per pound in the cotton market here today and of much more than that in the case of August contracts, with the general list closing steady at a net advance of 100@116 points for the day. Notwithstanding the sensational character of the price movement, trading was quiet during the entire day and there was no excitement. The market opened steady at an advance of 8@20 points, and prices worked steadily higher in a narrow market. The close was within 2 or 3 points of the best on all months except August. According to private Liverpool cables the board of cotton trade control has announced that additional freight cotton will be put on the English market during August, amounting to possibly 20,000 tons. This encouraged the talk of larger exports, and the advance here was accompanied by reports of an improved spot demand in the south. Exports so far this season, 63,718 bales, against 17,641 last year. Port receipts today, 6,673. United States port stocks, 556,389. Futures:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.
August	27.00	27.50	27.00	27.40	26.04
October	25.10	26.10	25.10	26.06	25.04

Spot, steady; middling, 27.80c.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 6.—COTTON—A rise of over a cent a pound—more than $5.00 a bale—was recorded in cotton today, chiefly as the result of reports of a strong spot demand in Texas. Last prices showed net gains of 107@111 points. Futures:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.

COFFEE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—COFFEE—Reports of frost in Brazil caused quite a sharp advance in the market for coffee futures here today, although they failed to inspire any general or aggressive buying. The opening was 8@14 points higher on covering and a little trade buying. The close was 3 or 4 points off from the best showing, a net advance of 8@10 points. Sales, 11,250 bags. August, 7.92c; September, 7.98c; October, 8.01c; November, 8.04c; December, 8.08c; January, 8.13c; February, 8.19c; March, 8.24c; April, 8.29c; May, 8.34c; June, 8.39c; July, 8.44c. Spot coffee was firm; Rio 7's, 9⅛c; Santos 4's, 10¼c. Sales of Santos 4s were reported in the cost and freight market at 9.50c, with offers of Santos 3's and 4's at 9.70c; London credits. Brazilian markets were unchanged to 75 reis higher. Port receipts, 61,000 bags; Jundiahy receipts, 39,000.

GOOD OFFICE POSITIONS

OPEN FOR YOUNG WOMEN.

There is an overwhelming demand for comptometer operators. We could place 500 right now if we had them. Out of 116 calls upon our Comptometer School for operators in the last two weeks we have only been able to supply 11.

Now is the time for girls 18 or over to learn to operate the Comptometer Adding Machine; grammar or high school graduates preferred. Easier than typewriting. Salaries range from $12 to $25 per week, according to experience.

Day and evening classes. Tuition cost small, payable in installments.

BUSINESS CALLS TRAINED MEN

THE evening classes in business training offered by the Northwestern University School of Commerce should appeal strongly to the men and women who will be called upon to fill the places of men withdrawn from business organizations for military service. Women will have to take their place by the side of men who—due to dependents, physical defects, being over or under the draft age, and other causes, will remain and carry on the work of those going to the front. The present standards of efficiency in business organizations must be maintained.

This means that the business world must look to the above class of people to supply it with those who are equipped to maintain that efficiency. The efficiency of any organization depends upon the people who go to make it up and in order for them to be efficient they must have the proper training and experience. The time for preparation is now and it may well be looked upon as being a patriotic duty as well as a duty which the individual owes himself. The disarrangement in business caused by the call for men to enter National Service demands that other men and women prepare themselves to assume the opportunities for responsible work as they present themselves. Experience is a good teacher but at a time like this the method is entirely too slow.

How You Can Prepare

The Northwestern University School of Commerce is organized for the training of men and women in business. This training is given in the evening so that it will not interfere with the daily work. The School has been in operation since 1908 and since that time over 5000 people have availed themselves of the opportunity to gain a college training in business by evening study. Last year there were 1075 students enrolled. The following statistics readily indicate to what classes of business workers these courses appeal: Seven men received salaries ranging from $3,600 to $5,400 a year; the yearly income of 28 of the students was $2,400 to $3,000 a year; 59 received $1,800 to $2,400; 136 received $1,300 to $1,800; in the $1,200 to $1,300 class there were 105; 83 received $1,080 to $1,200; 122 received $960 to $1,080; from $840 to $940 per year was the income of 145; under the $840 mark there were some 175 and of these a number were working only part of the time.

Wide Diversity of Subjects

Courses are offered in practically every phase of business. They include such courses as Accounting, Business Psychology, Banking, Commercial and Business Organization, Business English, Efficiency Engineering, Business Economics, Cost Accounting, Foreign Trade, Commercial Geography, Business Law, Investments, Sales Correspondence, Statistics, et cetera. The School is located in the loop so that it is accessible from all parts of the city. This is your opportunity. Act now.

Ask For One of the New Bulletins

The new bulletin, descriptive of the School of Commerce, its scope and work, will be sent in response to mail inquiry. If you prefer call in person at the University Building, Lake and Dearborn Streets, Room 412, or telephone Randolph 4377, Local 12.
